

PEACE COMMISSION TO MEET IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, June 10.—From an authoritative official source it is learned today that it has been practically determined that the Peace Commissioners between Japan and Russia for determining peace terms will hold their sessions in Washington.

DECLARE JAPS LOST WARSHIPS

Russians Assert That Many Ships Were Lost.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10.—A long dispatch from Rear Admiral Reitzenstein to the Ministry of Marine dated Shanghai, June 6, gives the official report of the commander of the torpedo boat destroyer Bodri, which recently arrived there in tow of a merchant steamer, but adds little to the knowledge about the battle of the Sea of Japan.

The Bodri, after taking 79 officers and men from the torpedo boat destroyer Biestlasch, which was sinking, tried to catch up with Rear Admiral Enquist's squadron, but ran out of fuel and lay helpless until picked up by the steamer Koneling and towed to Shanghai.

The officers of the Bodri and the rescued men on board of her reiterate that the Japanese lost two battleships, one of which was of the Mikasa type and the other of the Shikishima type and one armored cruiser and three cruisers.

Rear Admiral Reitzenstein adds that the Chinese authorities requested the Bodri to leave but Vice Admiral Kamimura's squadron arrived off Saddle Islands and her departure would have resulted in the loss of the vessel.

SPANISH KING HAS LEFT FOR HOME.

KING EDWARD GOES TO THE TRAIN TO SAY FAREWELL.

LONDON, June 10.—King Alfonso left London for Spain this morning. He apparently enjoyed his visit and the character of the farewells testified to the cordiality of the feelings of the British people.

King Edward, the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Connaught accompanied the Spanish King to the railroad station, where he met the Spanish Ambassador, Senor Polo de Bernabe, the rest of the Spanish Embassy, Foreign Secretary Lansdowne and others.

King Edward entered the royal car with his guest and engaged in a few minutes' conversation with him. As the train moved out of the station King Alfonso stood at a window waving farewells to the members of the British royal family, who stood bareheaded until the Spanish King had disappeared from their sight.

KING RECEIVES THE DOCUMENT

CHRISTIANA, June 10.—The address of the Storting to the King announcing the dissolution of the union between Norway and Sweden, which the King had previously refused to accept, was handed to him yesterday afternoon at Stockholm by a representative of the president of the Storting.

DEMANDS MADE BY GERMANY

What Kaiser's Country Wants the United States to Sign.

BERLIN, June 10.—The German government's draft of its views on the proposed commercial treaty with the United States is in course of preparation for submission to Washington in July. It is based upon the reports of the German chambers of commerce and other commercial authorities. The Duesseidorf chamber, one of the most influential in the Rhenish Westphalian manufacturing district, sent Prince von Buelow a memorial in which these fundamental principles were laid down:

First—The old Prussian treaty of 1828 must either be formally cancelled or extended to the German empire with binding force for the United States.

TREATY COMITY.

Second—If that treaty be cancelled, it must be replaced by a treaty of comity and navigation between the two countries. Among other things, such a treaty must regulate general navigation and commerce between them, define the rights of citizens of one country while stopping in the other and prepare the way for an extension of copyright arrangements and the promotion of postal intercourse.

Third—A tariff treaty with the United States must be sought in which one concession shall be balanced by another fully or approximately equally.

DINGLEY LAW.

Section four calls attention to section four of the Dingley law permitting reciprocity for only two years, and expresses doubt as to whether the United States government is in a position to make a treaty at all without further legislation and whether the United States government could get from Congress the right to conclude a treaty for a longer period than five years and then demands that in case the treaty negotiations lead to no practical result that the general German customs be applied to imports from the United States.

Section five suggests that some alleviation to the export business of each country could be secured by the United States continuing the lower rates of duties on German goods in the list provided for by the Saratoga agreement to which Germany would answer with equivalent compensations but not with treaty rates throughout as conceded in other countries.

FOR CONTESTS.

Section 6 reads: "Whatever arrangements are made must contain provisions for supplying free of cost information about tariff matters, for the publication of official lists of goods with regular supplements and for the settlement of tariff differences through diplomatic channels and for the free circulation of samples of goods and each country must pledge itself to accept the findings of the scientific bodies of the other state as to the composition of food products."

RAINSTORM FLOODS THE COUNTRY

BURLINGTON, Iowa, June 10.—A terrific rainstorm has flooded almost the entire country surrounding this city. The downpour was continuous all night. A number of washouts are reported on the railroads.

JAPAN AND RUSSIA ACCEPT ROOSEVELT'S SUGGESTION

Commissioners Will Represent Each Government and Try and Come to Peace Terms.

THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.

NEW YORK, June 10, 9:05 a. m.—The Associated Press has definite knowledge that both the Russian and Japanese governments have accepted President Roosevelt's suggestion and that a meeting of representatives of the two contending powers is assured.

JAPAN HAS AGREED TO PRESIDENT'S PLAN

TOKIO, June 10, 6 p. m.—Japan has agreed to President Roosevelt's suggestion to appoint plenipotentiaries to meet Russian plenipotentiaries.

ROOSEVELT MAKES HIT IN ST. PETERSBURG

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10, 3:15 p. m.—The text of President Roosevelt's personal appeal to the sovereigns of the warring countries to arrange a meeting of the plenipotentiaries for the purpose of agreeing on terms of peace, which arrived here this morning, rent the veil, and for the skeptics at St. Petersburg, who refused to believe President Roosevelt's efforts to bring the belligerents together could succeed, it came like a bombshell. President Roosevelt's sole purpose to bring about a meeting has been achieved, and now it is merely a question whether the results will be the peace, for which the whole civilized world will pray.

It is a diplomatic triumph of the first magnitude and the diplomats here make no attempt to conceal their admiration for the new world brand of diplomacy which acts while the remainder of the world thinks.

The formal replies of Russia and Japan are expected to be transmitted through Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador at Washington, and M. Takahira, the Japanese Minister at Washington, but the situation is such at this hour as to leave no doubt of the acceptance of both, and that the question of the selection of plenipotentiaries and the place of meeting will follow.

President Roosevelt's expression in favor of direct negotiations, exclusively between the belligerents, points straight to the battlefield in Manchuria as the scene of negotiations and the diplomats generally here entertain

FAWCETT SAFE IN POSITION

Secretary of Board of Works Will Remain.

Secretary Walter Fawcett of the Board of Public Works, who, since the inauguration of Mayor Mott's administration, has been on pins and needles relative to holding his position, is at last safe. Tonight he may sleep the sleep of the innocent and the just, for his official head is in no danger of being chopped off during the hours of the night.

There was a time that the uneasiness of Fawcett was perfectly justified. It was the program to have him supplanted by some other aspirant, but the three members of the Board of Public Works who have the appointment in charge could not agree on a successor. In fact, two of the members were pledged in a way to Fawcett, but one of the members stated to the chief executive that if Fawcett was objectionable personally to the Mayor that he would agree to the substitution of some one else.

Fawcett, by close attention to business and by a manifest desire to please the public with which he comes in contact daily, has gained the good will of the Mayor, at least to the extent that he will not be removed.

It is no easy thing to perform the duties of one's office when the ax is above your head and only held by a hair. Fawcett put on his most urbane smile, cheerfully looked everyone in the face, and won out.

Fawcett has not been reappointed; he simply holds office by virtue of the fact that there has been no one nominated for his place by the board. This state of affairs will probably endure to the end of the administration. It would probably be more satisfactory to the secretary if the board passed a resolution appointing him out-and-out secretary, but he is willing to draw salary for a while longer without having been officially notified that his services are wanted.

BIGELOW SAYS GUILTY

WELL KNOWN BANKER WILL BE SENTENCED THIS AFTERNOON.

MILWAUKEE, June 10.—United States District Attorney Butterfield announced today that former Banker Frank G. Bigelow would appear in the United States District Court this afternoon, plead guilty to a violation of the national banking laws and receive his sentence.

ROMANCE OF AGED COUPLE

The "Two Left Behind" Decide to Become One.

The memories of childhood days spent in Wales are to be shared by William R. Thomas, of Livermore and Jane P. Rogers of Berkeley, both of whom are now on the shady side of life. They left their native mountains over a quarter of a century ago. They took out a marriage license today and will be married at Livermore this evening, where the groom has some property and lives upon his income without having to work.

Nor is the least important part of this latter day romance the fact that upon her death bed his wife tried to gain an ante mortem promise from him that he would keep their home bright and that he would bring the woman he is now marrying to his home as his bride. "I could not promise her that at the time, but now we are both lonesome, having both lost our partners, and we have concluded to unite the two left behind," said Thomas this morning.

He gave his age as seventy-two and that of his bride as sixty. He stated that they both came to California from Wales about the year 1874, and that the two families were very friendly. She lost her husband about three years ago, and not long afterwards his wife died, and now, while remembering the departed, they are going to try and brighten their remaining days by their companionship and reveling in the memories of the days that were, when as beardless youth and innocent maid they roamed their native hillsides and finally took a long farewell of the land they still love.

LARGE LOSS BY FIRE

FIRE ENGINES HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM BEING DESTROYED.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A fire started in the factory of the New York and Brooklyn Casket Company in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn today and swept through several adjoining buildings, including the six-story tin factory of William Vogel and brother.

Two three-story buildings adjoining the factory, and the lumber yards of the casket company, also caught fire and the burning embers were sent flying over a long distance.

The blaze spread so fast that the firemen were compelled to drag their engines out of its way by hand. William Sheehan, a driver for the casket company, received injuries which may prove fatal. Practically every building within the block bounded by Wythe and Kent avenues and South Ninth and South Tenth streets, was either destroyed or badly damaged by the fire, and ninety families were rendered homeless. The total loss is estimated at $300,000.

STATE SCORES OVER STANDARD OIL

TOPEKA, Kan., June 10.—In the case of the State of Kansas versus the Standard Oil Company, the State won the first point in the Superior Court today. This is the case in which the State is attempting to oust the Standard Oil Company from the State on the ground that it is a trust.

ARE HIS WORDS A PROPHECY?

"Crisis Will Come When the War Ends."

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10, 12:30 p. m.—The Radical press, which hounds the government, no matter which way it turns, is promptly seeking to take advantage of the new situation created by the possibility of peace. Although for months it has been preaching peace and the abandonment of the whole of the Manchurian adventure at any cost, it has already veered around and now pretends to be horrified that the fact that Russia can contemplate the possibility of surrendering her position on the Pacific on such advantageous peace at the price of an indemnity after the sacrifice of millions of the people's money, and the thousands of people's lives, and declares that only the people shall determine whether they shall submit to this humiliation.

These tactics will produce all the more effects since so far as the indemnity goes, the radical papers undoubtedly reflect the views of the masses of the Russian people, and as the present government was elected by the status of Vladivostok and the question of an indemnity are sure to be the main obstacles to an agreement once the belligerents are brought together, but the crisis for which the solid elements of the opposition are waging war against the government and driving the precipitate, constitute a real danger.

Solemn words of warning, such as those uttered by the Moscow Zemstvo and the Mayors of the principal cities who joined with them in the all-Russian Zemstvo Congress (cannot be lightly thrust aside, although the movement is getting accustomed to hard words.

The organization known as the League of Professional Leagues, yesterday at Moscow threatened to translate their words into acts unless the government yielded, and resolved not only to inaugurate a strike of all professional classes but to arm in self-defense.

They also bound themselves not to testify at political trials, and provide for each other's families in case any of the members suffered arrest or execution.

Months ago M. Witte, president of the Committee of Ministers, said to the correspondent of the Associate Press: "There will be no internal crisis now or while the war lasts. The crisis will come when the war ends. His words seem like a prophecy."

KNIGHTS ARE LEAVING CITY

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—The Knights of Columbus, who have spent a pleasant week in this city and vicinity, are taking their departure, and after the big parade scheduled for tonight, nearly all will have gone either to San Francisco or to their Eastern homes. A number of knights and ladies took a trip through the orange groves today, while others visited the Pasadena ostrich farm, where luncheon was served by Madame Modjeska and a committee of ladies.

REV. C. R. BROWN RETURNS HOME

Rev. C. R. Brown, pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city, returned last night from Boston, where he delivered an address before the National Home Missionary Society. Sunday morning communion service will be held at the First Congregational Church, and in the evening Mr. Brown will deliver a sermon on "Some Observations South and East."

AGED WOMAN DIES.

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Thorne, a widow aged 80 years, died yesterday at her residence, 305 Perry street. The remains will be forwarded to Fresno for interment. She was a native of Tennessee, but had resided in this state for nearly a quarter of a century.

HOW HE RECEIVED SENTENCE

Lawyer Patrick Takes News of Verdict Cheerfully.

OSSINING, N. Y., June 10.—Albert T. Patrick was informed today in his cell in Sing Sing prison of the decision of the New York State Court of Appeals sustaining the judgment of conviction of murder in the first degree in causing the death of William Marsha Rice.

The first intimation that the court had decided against him was conveyed to Patrick by the warden while Patrick was eating his breakfast in the death house. The warden said afterward that the news did not seem to have the slightest effect on Patrick's appetite or spirits. He was not only cool, but was even cheerful and did not appear to think the court's decision was by any means final.

He told the warden that he intended to have a re-argument of the case, and that a motion for a new trial would be made to the appellate division and probably also the Court of Appeals.

The action would, he said, be based on the ground of newly discovered evidence and errors at the former trial.

FATHER M'NALLY IS HONORED

WILL BE GUEST OF HONOR AT A RECEPTION SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Rev. Father John B. McNally, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, will be tendered a reception Sunday afternoon at the auditorium adjoining the church by the pupils of St. Joseph's Institute. The affair will be given in honor of the thirty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

A musical and literary program has been prepared, and the anniversary address will be delivered by Miss Lily Treacy. A series of interesting tableaux will also be given which will represent the different periods in the life of Rev. Father McNally.

On Monday evening Father McNally will be the guest at a banquet to be given by the alumnae of St. Joseph's Institute. The following are the officers of the alumnae: President, Mary Connelly; secretary, Ella Flynn; treasurer, Estelle Long.

Rev. Father McNally is well known all over the state. He was educated in Carlow College, Ireland, and was ordained on June 11, 1870. Immediately after he was ordained he came to the United States and then to California.

Rev. Father McNally caused the erection of three churches in Santa Barbara, and another church in Moraga Valley, Contra Costa county. Twenty-six years ago he caused the erection of the St. Patrick's church in this city, where he has been pastor ever since.

As a public lecturer and pulpit orator his fame extends far. He is held in high esteem by the members of his parish, and by the citizens of Oakland, regardless of creed.

GROVER CLEVELAND WILL ACCEPT.

PRINCETON, New Jersey, June 10.—Former President Cleveland said today that he had received notifications of his selection as one of the three trustees of the Equitable Life Assurance Society and that he thought it his duty to accept the position.

CORONER'S VERDICT.

A coroner's jury last night returned a verdict of accidental death in the case of Peter F. Gould, who fell from a ladder in Alameda on Tuesday last. A verdict was decided that Walter Cushman, a young man who committed suicide in Berkeley by drinking carbolic acid, came to his death through a premeditated act.

DRISCOLL BACK IN CHICAGO

Former Secretary Denies That He Was Evading Subpoenas.

CHICAGO, June 10.—John C. Driscoll, former secretary of the Coal Team Owners Association, whose name has figured largely in charges attributed to former President Young and President Shea, of the teamsters, has returned to Chicago. Driscoll said today that he had not been evading service of subpoenas, but had been attending to details of business in connection with some property in Idaho.

Driscoll today denied the truth of the stories ascribed to Young and Shea. Driscoll has been mentioned as having some knowledge of money transactions alleged to have been conducted by various employers to obtain or call off strikes.

Immediately upon arrival in Chicago Driscoll got into communication with the State's Attorney and asked if it was desired to serve a subpoena to have him appear before the Grand Jury. The State's Attorney said he would waive the formality if Driscoll would come before the Grand Jury Monday and appear at State's Attorney Healy's office today for a conference. Driscoll agreed to the two requests.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR ROAD

HENRY BUTTERS OF OAKLAND INTERESTED IN LINE AT CHICO.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—At a conference held yesterday at the St. Francis Hotel plans were finally completed for the construction of the new electric railroad from Chico to Oroville. Those present at the meeting were Henry Butters, the millionaire mining man of Oakland; T. B. Walker, a Minneapolis timber magnate who is also extensively interested in the Chico route; and President Barber, General Manager of the Southern Railway, who is in charge of the project. The project, which is being promoted by the Chico Southern Railway, will begin at once. Material for the road will be ordered in a few weeks. T. B. Walker expressed a preference to remain in the background, but the fact is known that he has interested himself in the project.

The fact that John Martin, who is planning to build an electric road from Marysville to Grass Valley, has given rise to the belief that his company will eventually make connections with the Chico Southern and in time promote the scheme to build a road from Marysville to Sacramento by way of Colusa.

WILL PRESERVE ADOBE BUILDING

WHITTIER, Cal., June 10.—Through the payment of $4,000 the city of Whittier comes into possession of an adobe ruin which was at one time the home of Pio Pico, last Spanish Governor of California. The dwelling stands in the midst of valuable water-bearing land on which are the wells now supplying the city with water. An effort will be made to preserve the old building.

STUDENT DIES.

Lorenz T. Simpson, a student aged 18 years of age, died last night at the home of his parents, 450 Sixty-third street. The funeral will be held on Monday.

HE WAS CLOSE TO DEATH

Brave Act of a Berkeley Man Saves a Life.

BERKELEY, June 10.—The heroic action of Earl Montetella saved the life of Frank M. Thomas this morning while he was in immediate danger of death under the wheels of a big Southern Pacific engine.

Montetella saw the danger of Thomas as the locomotive bore down upon him, and while Thomas was apparently ignorant of the locomotive's approach Montetella grabbed him, pulled him from under the car wheels and so saved his life.

Thomas was passing the Southern Pacific track at Center street and Shattuck avenue at 10 o'clock this morning. The approaching engine coming from the south rang the bell and blew the whistle, but Thomas apparently heard neither. The engineer was unable to slow down and Thomas was struck on the head. At that moment Montetella saw Thomas' danger and grabbed him by the coat tail. Montetella is a small man, but he exerted all the strength he could and pulled Thomas from under the engine's wheels.

Mr. Thomas is about 60 years old and is employed in the real estate firm of J. M. Junk at 2111 Stanford place. He was removed to his home, where his injuries are given medical attention. He received a serious fracture of the hip and a deep gash in the neck.

BLOW AIMED AT RESTAURANTS

RETAIL BUTCHERS CANNOT SUPPLY HOUSES ENDORSED BY UNION.

Notice has been received by the retail butchers of Oakland that if they continue to sell meat to the restaurants which are endorsed by the Cooks' and Waiters' union, the wholesale meat dealers will cut off the supply. The retailers say they do not like this, but are helpless against the wholesalers, and have notified the unionized eating houses that after Monday they must look elsewhere for their meat.

This move of the opponents of unionism is looked upon by the union men as abortive. The Co-operative Meat Company, which is owned and controlled by unionists, is in a position to supply the places discriminated against, and is laying in extra help for that purpose. Two carloads of meat are on hand, and another will arrive this afternoon. One or more a day will be sent as long as meat is necessary, as the supply is not dependent upon the action of the wholesalers.

There are two extra men working at the big market on Fourteenth street, and Manager Schmidt states that he will have six more before night.

It is the opinion of the union men that the loss will fall entirely on the wholesalers who are employing non-union men, and that the Co-operative will profit greatly by the trouble.

While the Butcher's Union was having difficulties with the employers a couple of years ago, the proprietors succeeded in getting the restaurants to cease patronizing the shops where union men were employed. This prohibition is looked upon as the means taken by the wholesalers to pay off their debt to the members of the Restaurant Keepers' Protective Association.

LINEVITCH MAKES AN INSPECTION

TOKIO, June 10, 2 p. m.—General Linevitch is reported to be with his headquarters at Fenghuang busily engaged in the personal inspection and direction of his troops for the purpose of strengthening his line of defense along the Changchun Ki line, evidently expecting a Japanese onset. The Russian methods of making reconnaissances in force are held to have remarkably improved. They have ceased to be disorderly, but, owing to the Russians' over-faithfulness to the text book orders, they are placed at a disadvantage, their movements being anticipated by the Japanese, who prevent them from realizing results commensurate with the amount of sacrifices.

AUTOS START FOR THE COAST

SAN JOSE, June 10.—Many autos arrived in this city today from San Francisco on a run to Santa Cruz, and nearly a dozen big local machines also started for the coast. The weather is perfect, and the road over the summit by way of Alma is in excellent condition.

EDITOR DIES.

NEW YORK, June 10.—William H. Rogers, for fourteen years a member of the editorial staff of the World, is dead from acute pneumonia. He was born in Janesville, Wis., in 1865, and was graduated from Beloit. Upon leaving college he went into the newspaper field at St. Paul and Minneapolis, subsequently becoming chief editor of the Chicago Tribune. In 1891 he came to this city.

KNIGHTS ARE LEAVING CITY

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—The Knights of Columbus, who have spent a pleasant week in this city and vicinity, are taking their departure, and after the big parade scheduled for tonight, nearly all will have gone either to San Francisco or their Eastern homes. A number of knights and ladies took a trip through the orange groves today, while others visited the Pasadena ostrich farm, where luncheon was served by Madame Modjeska and a committee of ladies.

REV. C. R. BROWN RETURNS HOME

Rev. C. R. Brown, pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city, returned last night from Boston, where he delivered an address before the National Home Missionary Society. Sunday morning communion service will be held at the First Congregational Church, and in the evening Mr. Brown will deliver a sermon on "Some Observations South and East."

AGED WOMAN DIES.
Mrs. Elizabeth C. Thorne, a widow aged 80 years, died yesterday at her residence, 306 Perry street. The remains will be forwarded to Fresno for interment. She was a native of Tennessee, but had resided in this State for nearly a quarter of a century.

HOW HE RECEIVED SENTENCE

Lawyer Patrick Takes News of Verdict Cheerfully.

OSSENING, N. Y., June 10.—Albert T. Patrick was informed today in his cell in Sing Sing prison of the decision of the New York State Court of Appeals sustaining the judgment of conviction of murder in the first degree in causing the death of William Marsh Rice.

The first intimation that the court had decided against him was conveyed to Patrick by the warden while Patrick was eating his breakfast in the death house. The warden said afterward that the news did not seem to have the slightest effect on Patrick's appetite or spirits. He was not only calm, but was even cheerful and did not appear to think the court's decision was by any means final.

He told the warden that he intended to have a re-argument of the case, and that a motion for a new trial would be made to the appellate division and probably also to the Court of Appeals.

The action would, he said, be based on the ground of newly discovered evidence and errors at the former trial.

FATHER McNALLY IS HONORED

WILL BE GUEST OF HONOR AT A RECEPTION SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Rev. Father John B. McNally, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, will be tendered a reception Sunday afternoon at the auditorium adjoining the church by the pupils of St. Joseph's Institute. The affair will be given in honor of the thirty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

A musical and literary program has been prepared, and the anniversary address will be delivered by Miss Lily Treacy. A series of interesting tableaux will also be given which will represent the different periods in the life of Rev. Father McNally.

On Monday evening Father McNally will be the guest at a banquet to be given by the alumnae of St. Joseph's Institute. The following are the officers of the alumnae: President, Mary Connelly; secretary, Ella Flynn; treasurer, Estelle Long.

Rev. Father McNally is well known all over the State. He was educated in Carlow College, Ireland, and was ordained on June 11, 1870. Immediately after he was ordained he came to the United States and then to California.

Rev. Father McNally caused the erection of three churches in Santa Barbara, and another church in Moraga Valley, Contra Costa county. Twenty-six years ago he caused the erection of the St. Patrick's Church in this city, where he has been pastor ever since.

As a public lecturer and pulpit orator his fame extends far and wide. In high esteem by the members of his parish, and by the citizens of Oakland, regardless of creed.

GROVER CLEVELAND WILL ACCEPT.

PRINCETON, New Jersey, June 10.—Former President Cleveland said today that he had received notification of his selection as one of the three trustees of the Equitable Life Assurance Society and that he thought it his duty to accept the position.

CORONER'S VERDICT.

A coroner's jury last night returned a verdict of accidental death in the case of Peter F. Gould, who fell from a ladder in Alameda on Tuesday last. A verdict was decided that Walter Cushing, a young man who committed suicide in Berkeley by drinking carbolic acid, came to his death through a premeditated act.

DRISCOLL BACK IN CHICAGO

Former Secretary Denies That He Was Evading Subpoenas.

CHICAGO, June 10.—John C. Driscoll, former secretary of the Coal Team Owners Association, whose name has figured largely in charges attributed to former President Young and President Shea, of the teamsters, has returned to Chicago. Driscoll said today that he had not been evading service of subpoenas, but had been attending to details of business in connection with some property in Idaho.

Driscoll today denied the truth of the stories ascribed to Young and Shea. Driscoll has been mentioned as having some knowledge of money transactions alleged to have been conducted by various employers to obtain or keep out of strikes.

Immediately upon arrival in Chicago Driscoll got into communication with the State's Attorney and asked if it was desired to serve a subpoena to have him appear before the Grand Jury. The State's Attorney said he would waive the formality if Driscoll would come before the Grand Jury Monday and appear at State's Attorney Healy's office today for a conference. Driscoll agreed to the two requests.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR ROAD

HENRY BUTTERS OF OAKLAND INTERESTED IN LINE AT CHICO.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—At a conference held yesterday at the St. Francis Hotel plans were finally completed for the construction of the new electric railroad from Chico to Oroville. Those present at the meeting were Henry Butters, the millionaire mining man of Oakland, T. B. Walker, a Minneapolis timber magnate who is extensively interested in the route of which a survey was recently completed under the direction of Engineer Robinson, will begin at once. Material for the road will be ordered in a few weeks. T. B. Walker expressed a preference to remain in the background, but the fact became known that he was interested in the project.

The fact that John Martin, who is planning to build an electric road from Marysville to Grass Valley, has been meeting with the promoters of the road between Chico and Oroville, and held a conference with the latter yesterday, has given rise to the belief that his company will eventually make connections with the Chico Southern and in this promote the scheme to build a road from Marysville to Sacramento by way of Colusa.

WILL PRESERVE ADOBE BUILDING

WHITTIER, Cal., June 10.—Through the payment of $4,000 the city of Whittier comes into possession of an adobe ruin which was at one time the home of Pio Pico, last Spanish Governor of California. The dwelling stands in the midst of valuable water-bearing land on which are the wells now supplying the city with water. An effort will be made to preserve the old building.

STUDENT DIES.

Lorenz T. Simpson, a student aged 18 years of age, died last night at the home of his parents, 450 Sixty-third street. The funeral will be held on Monday.

HE WAS CLOSE TO DEATH

Brave Act of a Berkeley Man Saves a Life.

BERKELEY, June 10.—The heroic action of Earl Montetella saved the life of Frank M. Thomas this morning while he was in immediate danger of death under the wheels of a big Southern Pacific engine.

Montetella saw the danger of Thomas as the locomotive bore down upon him, and while Thomas was apparently ignorant of the locomotive's approach Montetella grabbed him, pulled him from under the car wheels and so saved his life.

Thomas was passing the Southern Pacific track at Center street and Shattuck avenue at 10 o'clock this morning. The approaching engine coming from the south rang the bell and blew the whistle, but Thomas apparently heard neither. The engineer was unable to slow down and Thomas was struck on the head. At that moment Montetella saw Thomas' danger and grabbed him by the coat tail. Montetella is a small man, but he exerted all the strength he could and pulled Thomas from under the engine's wheels.

Mr. Thomas is about 60 years old and is employed in the real estate firm of J. M. Juncos at 210 Oakland place. He was removed to his home, where his injuries were given medical attention. He received a serious fracture of the hip and a deep gash in the neck.

BLOW AIMED AT RESTAURANTS

RETAIL BUTCHERS CANNOT SUPPLY HOUSES ENDORSED BY UNION.

Notice has been received by the retail butchers of Oakland that if they continue to sell meat to the restaurants which are endorsed by the Cooks and Waiters' union, the wholesale meat dealers will cut off the supply. The retailers say they do not like this, but are helpless against the wholesalers, and have notified the unionized eating houses that after Monday they must look elsewhere for their meat.

This move of the opponents of unionism is looked upon by the union men as abortive. The Co-Operative Meat Company, which is owned and controlled by unionists, is in a position to supply the places discriminated against, and is laying in extra help for that purpose. Two carloads of meat are on hand, and another will arrive this afternoon. One or more days will be sent as long as may be necessary, as the supply is not dependent upon the action of the wholesalers.

There are two extra men working at the big market on Fourteenth street, and Manager Chundt states that he will have six more before night.

It is the opinion of the union men that the loss will fall entirely on the butchers who are employing non-union men, and that the Co-Operative will profit greatly by the trouble.

While the Butcher's Union was having difficulties with the employers a couple of years ago, the proprietors and sustained some minor injuries, and succeeded in getting the restaurants to cease patronizing the shops where union men were employed. This prohibition is looked upon as the means taken by the wholesalers to pay off their debt to the members of the Restaurant Keepers' Protective Association.

LINEVITCH MAKES AN INSPECTION

TOKIO, June 10, 2 p. m.—General Linevitch is reported to be with his headquarters at Fenghua busily engaged in the personal inspection and direction of his troops for the purpose of strengthening his line of defense along the Changchun Ki line, evidently expecting a Japanese onset. The Russian methods of making reconnaissances in force, are said to have remarkably improved. They have ceased to be disorderly, but, owing to the Russians' over-faithfulness to the text book orders, they are placed at a disadvantage, their movements being anticipated by the Japanese, who prevent them from realizing results commensurate with the amount of sacrifices.

AUTOS START FOR THE COAST

SAN JOSE, June 10.—Many autos arrived in this city today from San Francisco on a run to Santa Cruz, and nearly a dozen big local machines started for the coast. The weather is perfect, and the road over the summit by way of Alma is in excellent condition.

EDITOR DIES.

NEW YORK, June 10.—William H. Rogers, for fourteen years a member of the editorial staff of the World, is dead from acute pneumonia. He was born in Janesville, Wis., in 1865, and was graduated from Beloit. Upon leaving college he went into the newspaper field at St. Paul and Minneapolis, subsequently becoming night editor of the Chicago Tribune. In 1891 he came to this city.

STANDARD OIL CO. VERY BUSY

PREPARING LARGE WORKS AT POINT SAN PABLO FOR SHIPPING.

POINT RICHMOND June 10—
Work on the pier line to Point San Pablo commenced this morning. The first installment of both the six and the eight inch pipe came in the yards yesterday. A large force of men with engine and cars are at work today
"stringing the pipe."

Another large force have commenced digging the trenches. Both pipe lines will be put in the same trench.
One line is supposed to be for refined oil and the other for fuel oil. Whether this enterprise of the P. C. O. company is merely for shipping purposes remains to be seen. It is thought by some to be the forerunner of some big industry out at Point San Pablo.

The query very naturally arises in this connection for what purpose did the P. C. O. company recently acquire title to forty acres of land at Point San Pablo? It was decided to them by the East Shore company who realized a big price for same.

The sheet steel for the new tanks has also begun to arrive. Yesterday there were eight cars at the works and eighteen cars in the yards. A force of men are working night and day to unload them. There seems to be great haste in pushing the work to completion. Both pipe and steel will be coming in in installments from now on almost every day.

It is said that it will be only a few days now till the lumber and other material for the ship yard will begin to arrive. There will evidently be something doing out on the peninsula this summer.

The heavy steel tools for the ship building plant are now being made at the blacksmith shops at the oil works.

CATCH SNEAK THIEF.

About 11 o'clock last night Landlord McKinley of the Manhattan hotel dropped on to a fellow going through one of his rooms in his hotel.
He phoned to Nightwatchman Tyler who came post haste. They waited and watched and very soon the fellow came out from a room with an arm load of clothing. Officer Tyler put him under arrest and took him to jail. The Richmond jail sheltered him last night. This morning he was taken to San Pablo. Judge Masterson will hear his case today. Look out for burglars there are a good many toughs around.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. G. A. Jackson is down at San Leandro at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. R. S. Farrelly who recently underwent a serious operation at Pa-biola Hospital in Oakland. She was taken home on Monday. G. A. Jackson went down there last evening, returning this morning.

Mrs. W. S. Bennison was taken to St. Luke's Hospital in San Francisco again yesterday. She has had plenty of trouble heretofore and now she must submit to an operation for the removal of a tumor of quite recent development. Her many friends hope again for her speedy return to health.

Rev. H. J. Loken, pastor of the
month's vacation. He will visit friends in Oregon.

Mrs. H. L. Marcus of Helena, Mon-ville.

STANDARD OIL BUILDING VESSEL

The Standard Oil Company has begun the building of a steel vessel at its docks at Point Richmond and it is believed that this is the first step toward the establishment of extensive shipyards by the company at the point. W. R. Riehm, general manager of the company at Point Richmond, in an interview last evening said:

"We are trying an experiment and have begun the building of a steel tank ship for the transportation of oil about the bay. It is only for the local service but what may be done later on if it turns out a success I am not prepared to say. We have quite a plant here now, and the probability is that as we need ships and find that we can build them ourselves we shall do so. The new boat will be run by gasoline."

KNOWLAND INSPECTS SUISUN SLOUGH

BENECIA, June 10—Congressman
Joseph R. Knowland visited Suisun yesterday at the instance of the Board of Trade. The object of his visit was an inspection of Suisun Slough for the purpose of determining the amount that will be required to dredge the slough. Congress will be asked to appropriate the necessary cash. The Suisun Slough is barely navigable at low tide and has been a serious drawback to transportation.

MRS. BERCOVICH RETURNS.

Mrs. Bert Bercovich and son Joaquin have returned from a week's pleasure trip having visited relatives at San Jose and Los Gatos. Mrs. Ber-covich will leave for the Portland Fair shortly, where her parents reside, and will be away about two months.

EBELL COMMITTEE AT WORK ON PLANS

ARCHITECTS MAKING SUGGES-TIONS ABOUT THE NEW BUILDING.

The ladies comprising the building committee of the Ebells Society are taking hold of the proposition in a very business-like manner. They are holding regular meetings, arranging the detail work, and discussing ways and means for prosecuting the task before them to a successful issue.

Several architects have already offered suggestions but it is understood the committee will give every plan submitted careful consideration before taking final action.

The ladies are very enthusiastic and are determined that the new club building shall be modern in every respect.

Trial at Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, June 10.—Elmer Wright of San Jose, and E. J. Emmons of Bakersfield, who were expelled from the State Senate for bribery and afterwards indicted by the Sacramento grand jury, appeared before Judge Hart in the Superior Court today.

The court overruled their demurrers to the complaints, after which the accused men entered pleas of not guilty. Wright's trial was set for September 11 and the trial of Emmons for July 17.

Steps are being taken by the attorneys of Ex-Senator Harry Bunkers, convicted of bribery, to secure his release on bail pending an appeal to the Third District Appellate Court.

VALLEJO, June 10.—The body of the murdered man found on the railroad track near Suissun has been identified as that of Peter Corrigan, a workman employed in the stone quarries at Cordelia. On last Wednesday, the day before the body was found, he was paid a fourteen-dollar check at Suissun before starting to walk home.

RECORD MADE BY FOUR GUNNERS

NEW YORK, June 10.—All records for shooting with five-inch guns were broken by four gunners of the first-class battery at Fort Mifflin, Pa., on the Northern drill grounds, twenty miles outside of Fort Mifflin, last Thursday. One gunner, with fourteen shots a minute, hit the target thirteen times. The second gunner fired thirteen times per minute and hit the target each time. Two other men had each twelve hits out of thirteen shots a minute.

BANKERS FOOLED
THEIR DEPOSITORS

GOLDFIELD, Nevada, June 10.—The preliminary examination of J. B. Young of the Goldfield Bank & Trust Company and Francis L. Burton, on the charge of conspiracy and obtaining money by false pretenses, resulted in their acquittal. Young was remanded into custody pending his trial on the charge of embezzlement.

About $24,000 worth of Young's personal securities have been attached, and these, with others, will, it is estimated, pay the creditors of the bank 50 per cent.

Cashier Boal's testimony show that he paid but one $5,000 check to Burton upon the advice of Director Davis. This check was indorsed twice.

The two debit checks, amounting to $14,000, were accounted for by Cashier Boal's statement to Receiver Hirschfeld that they were fakes representing no money, but were used to bolster up the bank's capitalization, which was said to be $100,000, but was only in reality $17,000 cash.

HE WAS ROBBED

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—The police have been notified of a sensational and mysterious robbery at the Hotel Westminster, one of the leading hotels of the city, in which Mark Hammerschlag, a business man of New York City, residing at 151 Park Grove avenue, was robbed of $132 in cash, $500 in drafts and about $800 worth of diamonds and other jewelry.

The valuables were in a package which was placed in the suite of the hotel office last Wednesday. The robbery being discovered today. The police are so far without a clue to the perpetrator. Hammerschlag was one of the Knights of Columbus delegates that had been in session in this city for a week.

STUDENTS
ENJOY A
RUSHU. C. Boys Have a Lively Time at Santa Cruz.

SANTA CRUZ, June 10.—If the students at the University of California are forbidden the pleasant privilege of having on their own campus the seductive and most popular of their summer camps, at Camp California, beside Liddel creek, in this county, where a number of collegians are gathered to pursue vacation work in the engineering department, there has just been a rush that might rival the famous battles of former Charter Days.

The trouble all began with a couple of first-year students who refused to do "water-wagon" duty at the command of their sophomoric superiors. The winds which sweep down the canyon fill the tents with dust and sprinkling pots have been provided to water the camp street. No one appeared willing to assume the responsibility of removing the nuisance though all complained of the dust. At last the sophomores, who are decidedly in the majority, posted a notice on the bulletin board that the freshmen would be expected to become "water wagons" as well as care for the latrines hung in the wash-room by the creek.

WON'T BE WATER WAGONS.

The first assignment fell to E. C. Rice, H. W. Palmer and J. E. Ostrander. These three potential "water wagons," however, refused the function thrust upon them, and, hoping to avoid punishment, slipped out to a nearby settlement known as "Coast." In their absence the indignant sophomores held a meeting and were waiting for them on their return. The truants returned at midnight, armed to the teeth with stout clubs, but as sentinels had been posted on the road the whole camp turned out to meet them. A wild scrimmage was precipitated in which the freshmen were quickly overpowered and the three ringleaders were marched to the edge of a cold, deep pool in the creek. The presiding juniors excused Rice from a ducking, as he was suffering from a cold, but the other two were stripped and tossed into the icy waters, where for several minutes they were forced to caper and cavort for the benefit of the crowd on shore. Rice met them on the bank with towels, but they crept into chilly beds that night.

This was but the beginning. The three students assigned to "water wagon" duty the next day not only refused to perform their duty, but started a rush that involved every one in the camp and threatened to demolish the tents. The list selected was J. K. Sibley, A. Levy and C. M. Elliott, but the three laughed at the order and left the sprinkling pots untouched.

SOPHOMORES PLAN HAZING.

Shortly before nightfall a delegation of sophomores, headed by J. H. Rogers and R. C. Canham, and W. C. Schreiber, visited the freshmen on the night of the riot, and told them that if they did not step out of the camp and into the creek, they would be hanged. The freshmen, who were not to be taken in by the sophomores, refused to be hanged, and the sophomores, who were not to be taken in by the freshmen, refused to be hanged.

After a little the sophomores retreated, but soon returned, dragging Elliott, who had caused all the trouble. But they were met at the entrance of the camp street by the combined forces of the juniors and freshmen, who were not to be taken in by the sophomores, and the freshmen, who were not to be taken in by the sophomores, refused to be hanged.

GRAVE CHARGES
MADEAttorney Heney Promises Land Sensation in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—Grave charges have been made against the officials of the State Land Office by Francis J. Heney, The Government attorney has reported to Washington that conditions in California are even worse than those in Oregon, in connection with what United States Senator Mitchell and Congressman Blinger Hermann were indicted by a Federal grand jury. He has made accusations against the officials of the State Land Office by Francis J. Heney, The Government attorney has reported to Washington that conditions in California are even worse than those in Oregon, in connection with what United States Senator Mitchell and Congressman Blinger Hermann were indicted by a Federal grand jury.

Mr. Heney left for Portland last night, but before his departure he expressed himself without mincing words. He declared unequivocally that gross dishonesty had been practiced by both speculators and officials; he also took occasion severely to criticize State Attorney-General Webb, State Surveyor General Wood and United States Attorney Devlin, declaring that, if those men would do their duty there would be no need for a special government prosecutor.

STATE OFFICE WITH RING.

"The trouble lies in the State Land Office itself," said Mr. Heney. "The office has been hand in glove with the ring, and any pretense of ignorance in regard to the schemes of graft which have been carried out is absurd; the ring has received favors from the office ever since the last election, and as a result two-thirds of the State's valuable timber lands have been stolen."

"The speculators have been in possession all along of advance information. This has been especially noticeable in the matter of the creation of forest reserves. Two superintendents have confessed that they were bribed to make the reserves cover as much vacant school land as possible. This land was particularly worthless, all the good school land having been taken up. Some of it lies on the top of crags and was useless for any purpose except the creation of scrip. But those who filed on the land for $1.25 an acre could dispose of their holdings for $50 an acre as soon as they were included in a forest reserve. And often they could do even better than that by taking up lieu lands in the best part of the timber belt."

DUMMIES HAVE BEEN USED.

Attorney Heney stated that he could prove that the school lands had been acquired by the use of dummies, who signed applications and swore that the lands sought were for their own use. By establishing that charge, he said, he would prove perjury on the part of the signers and subornation of perjury on the part of the speculators who employed the dummies.

It is a substance in Mr. Heney's charge that the Land Office at Sacramento has operated with the man who have conspired against both State and National Governments, California will soon be shaken by a scandal of far-reaching significance. And if Mr. Heney begins the work of proving his accusations the guilty will be prosecuted regardless of political influence.

Matrimony has cured many an old bachelor of selfishness.

MAN HANGS HIMSELF IN NORTH BERKELEY.Body, Yet Unidentified, Found
Dangling From Lone Pine Tree in Lamona Park.

BERKELEY, June 10.—The body of an unknown man which hung by a cord from a lone pine tree in the quarry near Lamona Park in North Berkeley, was found at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon by Robert Butler, who lives about a mile from the place.

Butler telephoned to Deputy Coroner Streightif and to Marshal Vollmer's office. Streightif left at once for the scene.

The body is described as that of a middle aged man fairly well dressed. Apparently life had not been extinct long according to Butler's description of the corpse.

A rope had been thrown over the limb of a tree by the desperate man, and then he neatly arranged the noose so that strangulation would follow.

The quarry where the suicide is reported from, is used by the Spring Rock Construction Company. It is close to the old residence of Captain Thomas, near the Wheeler Tract.

The investigation that will be made, Mr. Heney said:

"There ought not to be any need for the Government to employ a special attorney. It is no more my duty to run down the land thieves than it is the duty of Surveyor-General Wood, Attorney-General Webb of California and United States Attorney Devlin. What are they in office for? They know that offenses against the State and Federal Governments have been going on for years, and yet when they do nothing worse, they sit and fold their hands and say: 'No one has made a complaint.' I do not know what they call a complaint. The public records are a full evidence of bad faith on the part of those who have acquired timber lands, and yet the Government has to employ a special prosecutor to investigate the frauds."

The indictment of Benson, Hyde and Dimond in Washington covered their fraudulent dealings with the Federal Government in several States, including California. But by the irregular acquisition of school land they also committed crimes against the State Government, and for such should be prosecuted by the State Attorney-General, with the assistance of the Surveyor-General. The school lands are transferred by the United States to the State, to be disposed of for the benefit of the schools. Although the final patent must come from the Federal Government, the certificate of purchase, which follows, the application for land and the payment of a conveyance of title, is issued by the State Land Office.

Chicago and Glasgow—A Difference

James Dalrymple, the head of the Glasgow tramway system, who has been brought to Chicago to enlighten the authorities of that city in regard to the workings of municipal ownership in the Scottish metropolis, is not sure the success Glasgow has met with can be duplicated in Chicago. The membership of street railway employees in labor unions and their active participation in politics are drawbacks which he considers peculiarly discouraging. Neither is tolerated in Glasgow. He foresees that the employees will exert their influence in the unions and in politics to lighten their labor and increase their wages. At the same time the public will expect cheaper service and better accommodations. The demands of the public will be incompatible with the demands of the employees, and the demands of both incompatible with the financial success of operating the street railroads by the municipality.

In Glasgow the tramway employees take no active part in politics, and are kept entirely aloof from labor unions. Fares are graduated according to distance, and are based upon the necessity for providing sufficient income to pay costs of operation, the expense of maintenance plus an annual contribution to a sinking fund for bond liquidation. In other words, the street railways of Glasgow are managed strictly as a business proposition. The bonds issued for the purchase and construction are held by the inhabitants of the city, being widely distributed among all classes of society. Being managed on a business basis, the street railways do not entail any burdens on the taxpayers, but on the contrary turn into the city treasury each year a net surplus, which is treated as revenue for general purposes. Nevertheless the tax rate of Glasgow is higher than it is in Chicago, and the average of fares is also higher, though for short distances the fares run as low as one cent.

The situation in Chicago is altogether different. There the poor take the longest rides, and consequently get the most for their money. Yet the first demand for lower fares would come from the laborers, who would use the ballot to enforce their wishes. The moment employees were forbidden to belong to labor organizations there would be political agitation. It would be impossible to prevent the employees from participating in politics because the theory of our government is based upon the right of every man to vote as he pleases.

Lastly, it is hardly possible that the general public of Chicago can be induced to become financially interested in a municipal owned street railroad system to anything like the extent that the people of Glasgow are interested in their trams. Bonds of the street railroads are a favorite investment for people of small means in Glasgow, who buy municipal securities in preference to depositing their surplus earnings in savings banks. In this country the custom is to deposit the money in the savings banks and let the banks buy the bonds. This system places a trustee between the depositor and his investment, and of course destroys the personal interest felt in bonded public enterprises that the average citizen of Glasgow feels.

Mr. Dalrymple deems it of the first importance that employees of municipal owned public service utilities should keep aloof from unions and politics, and that the capital employed in such utilities should be furnished by the people who use them. Borrowing money from outsiders abroad is, according to his view, a mistake because it separates the investor from the investment, and the public financially from its own utility.

An Historical Parallel For Alfonso.

History will be repeating itself if the Spanish King should espouse an English princess. The first queen of Henry VIII. was Catherine of Aragon and the husband of Bloody Mary was King of Spain; but away back of all that Old John of Gaunt, "time-honored Lancaster," fourth son of Edward III., was married to a daughter of Pedro the Cruel, King of Castile. Philip II. of Spain claimed the British throne by virtue of his marriage with Queen Mary, sister of Queen Elizabeth, and the Armada was sent out partially to assert his alleged rights and partially to punish England for the ravages of English privateers on Spanish commerce in the New World. Religious feeling also played an important part because Elizabeth was under the Catholic church's ban of illegitimacy and her government was under Papal interdict for confiscating the estates and revenues of the church and expelling the Catholic clergy from their benefices. Times have changed, however, since the days when "singeing the King of Spain's beard," was not only a pious duty but a lucrative trade, and the Spanish monarchs have ceased to claim the English crown. The ruling house in England has likewise renounced the foolish claim to the crown of France. Still it would be something of an innovation for an English princess to marry a Catholic monarch, although an English princess is married into the royal family of Russia. But the religious beliefs of royalty no longer cut much figure in the world's politics, and both dynastic and religious wars have practically ceased to disturb the peace of mankind. Consequently a union of the House of Hanover with the House of Bourbon would signify little beyond the fact that the world is outgrowing many of the foolish prejudices of the past.

The Mayor's Plan For Municipal Improvement.

Mayor Mott proposes to create an advisory committee of citizens to co-operate with the Board of Public Works and the Council in schemes for improving and adorning the city. Questions relative to administration and patronage will not be referred to this committee, which will only be called together to consider plans for municipal betterments out of the ordinary course. The object of constituting this committee is to put the moral force of the community behind such plans as may be formulated and presented and to assure the public that the plans of municipal improvement are not dictated by personal or political aims.

It is a wise move and one to be warmly commended. If the city is to have any improvements worthy of the name in the near future there must be concert of action on the part of the responsible elements of the community and accord between the different branches of the municipal government. All differences of a political and personal character must be sunk in the endeavor to inaugurate a scheme of betterment which will make Oakland a more beautiful and attractive city.

Among the more pressing and immediate needs of the city are the improvement of Lake Merritt, a new City Hall and the creation of a comprehensive park system. The development of the sewer system and street improvements are also necessary, but they are incidental rather than extraordinary in their character, and can be attended to in the ordinary course of municipal administration. A City Hall, parks, boulevards and the contemplated improvement of Lake Merritt are betterments of an extraordinary character requiring the general consent, if not the active co-operation, of the entire community. It is to secure such consent and co-operation that Mayor Mott proposes to create an advisory committee of citizens. It is to be hoped that every progressive citizen will give the Mayor cordial support in an undertaking which promises so much for municipal advancement.

The Santa Rosa Republican tartly reproves its contemporary, the Press Democrat, for complaining about the condition of the county roads. Now children, guess which paper has the county printing.

The Trouble In Norway.

The breaking of the political bands which have bound Norway to Sweden ever since 1814 is the result of a strenuous political and literary agitation which has continued for more than forty years. Russian intrigue has to a considerable extent fomented and promoted this agitation, because Russian policy has long been directed toward the ultimate acquisition of the Scandinavian peninsula and Russian influence has never lost an opportunity to aid in every movement calculated to detach Norway from Sweden. Peter the Great first conceived the idea of giving Russia free access to the Atlantic ocean through the ports of Scandinavia, and his successors have never lost sight of his magnificent design. However, Russian influences have had little share in the immediate troubles between the Norse and the Swedes.

National ideals have had more to do with bringing about the separation of the two kingdoms than any valid governmental grievance. Norway's demand for a separate consular service is more of a sentimental than a practical question. It was born of national pride rather than of practical expediency. The importance attached to it is somewhat ludicrous, but not more ludicrous than the fierce repugnance the American colonists manifested to paying the stamp and tea taxes.

The Norwegian people are among the freest on earth. Even before the Storting, as their national legislature is called, decreed a dissolution of the union with Sweden they had absolute control over their own domestic affairs. They enacted their own laws, levied their own taxes, and administered the judicial, civil and military departments without interference from the Swedes and scarcely without asking leave of the king. His consent, anyway, was only a matter of form. His council of state was selected for him by the Storting, and he could no more control its action than the President can control a committee of Congress. In fact, in Norway Oscar was king of Norway, not of Sweden, and his acts only had validity so far as they accorded with the will of the Storting and the constitution of the dual monarchy. Because he has attempted to nullify with his veto a law passed by the Storting in obedience to overwhelming sentiment, the Norse people have renounced their allegiance to him.

There is not likely to be any blood shed over the separation because Sweden has no color of right to assume authority over Norway and the king has practically no supporters among the Norse. But the separation is unfortunate for all that. It makes two weak powers, jealous and jostling, where there should be unity to resist the aggression that will come sooner or later from Russia. However, the Norse have always been jealous of Sweden's prominence in foreign affairs. They are a proud-spirited people and they resented being relegated to a secondary, and as they regarded it, an inferior position. They remembered that at one time a Norse dynasty ruled in Sweden, but they forget that it was the Swedes who rescued the peninsula from the domination of Denmark. They are of the same blood as the Swedes, although they speak a slightly different language, but being of the same blood and speech probably intensified their anger at being denied a full partnership in the external affairs of the united government. Norway is a country of great literary activity, and this activity served to raise the national spirit and sharpen the jealousy of Sweden, which is by far the wealthier and more populous of the two countries. The evil consequences of the separation are minimized at present, however, by the terrible defeats inflicted on Russia by Japan. It is, besides, unlikely that Germany and Great Britain would permit the Czar to extend his dominion over the Scandinavian peninsula, even had he power to do so.

The Atlanta Journal classes the Cabots as among the famous rovers and explorers of Viking and Teutonic stock who made England famous after the discovery of America. The Cabots were Genoese although they sailed under the English flag. And while the exploits of the English navigators are worthy of the highest praise, it cannot be said that any one of them ever equalled the performances of Columbus, Magellan and Vasco de Gama, Latins all. Mackenzie, the most renowned explorer of British North America, was a Celt, and La Salle, whose performance is without a parallel on this continent, was a Frenchman. Some of the expeditions of the early Spanish explorers in South America challenge comparison with anything in history. Livingstone, the famous missionary explorer of Africa, was a Scotchman and Stanley, the man who found him, was a Welshman. The Anglo-Teutonic stock of Great Britain has much to its credit in the way of exploration at the expense of great personal danger and physical hardship, but it can claim no precedence over the Celts and Latins in this respect.

A GOOD WORD FOR PAUL MORTON.

There has been a good deal printed in the newspapers of America about the bad things that Paul Morton has done. May I beg a few lines of space to tell of three good things he did?

When the Santa Fe wanted an entrance into the city of San Francisco and was held up by a crooked Legislature at Sacramento, Paul Morton refused to allow any money to be taken from the Santa Fe treasury for bribes. The Santa Fe won the respect of California for that.

When the managers of the Standard Oil Company threatened to boycott the Santa Fe or the Southern Pacific Company if they hauled the oil of the independent producers to San Francisco, Paul Morton risked the loss of all the Standard Oil traffic and said he would haul all the oil brought to him. What is more, the Santa Fe did haul it, while the manager of the Southern Pacific refused to haul a single barrel. If any one wishes proof of that let him send to the Home Oil Company, of San Francisco. For that, out in California, they call Paul Morton a white man.

When Paul Morton was asked on the witness stand if he had paid rebates he told the truth like a man and said he had broken the law. All the other railroad witnesses lied. I can name one firm that receives fifty thousand dollars a year in rebates from the hands of a manager who swore he had never broken the law.

A railroad man who refuses to pay bribes for franchises, risks his job to give a few poor miners of oil a square deal, and tells the truth about rebates, can have charge of my life insurance even if he does not teach Sunday school nor give French balls, and that is how they size up Paul Morton from the Rocky Mountains to the Ensenada de Todos Santos.—T. T. WILLIAMS in New York American.

THERE ARE OTHERS, TO BE SURE

THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE publishes a strong poem by Harold Begil, prompted by the death of Gunner Grounds, the best shot of the English navy, who, for making new records with big guns, received one year one shilling and nine pence, and the next year six shillings and three pence, equivalent to the magnificent sum of one dollar and ninety-two cents in American money. But it is not only in the English navy that men have "hit the mark" and gone unrewarded.—San Bernardino Times-Index.

We can see where the Rochester Union and Advertiser is right when it says: "The legislatures of all the States should study the legislature of the State of New York and try to be different."—Atlanta Constitution.

If the London Spectator is correct in its count, the Hon. John Hay is half of all the statesmen in this country.—Chicago Tribune.

So long as the newspapers continue to call the legislators solons, they'll think they are worth more money.—Chicago Post.

MAN IS INJURED

Is Crushed Between Two Cars.

FRUITVALE, June 10.—With his back and ribs broken, J. Giacomo of this place lies on a bed of pain at the County Infirmary as the result of an accident on the Leona Heights rock crusher. It happened at about eight o'clock Thursday evening, when he was at work at the top of a pile of crushed rock. He was caught between two moving rock cars and fearfully crushed.

Dr. Callen was summoned at once, but could scarcely make the man unconscious of his pain. Yesterday morning it was decided that he must be sent to the Infirmary, as his case is very serious, and it will take months for recovery, if it is ever accomplished.

The upper ribs were torn loose from the breast-bone, and the flesh badly mangled.

STUDY ENGLISH POET.

Alfred Lord Tennyson was studied at the meeting of the Fruitvale Forum last night. There were a large number of readings from his works, and Rev. B. F. Palmer read a paper on the way in which Tennyson utilized the Scriptures for illustrations and subject matter.

Mrs. Spencer Riley sang several selections from "The Song Cycle" and "MAUD."

BOY FRACTURES BOTH HIS ARMS

BERKELEY, June 10.—Walter Williamson, the 10-year-old son of C. E. Williamson, of 3247 Adeline street, fell from a wire down which he was sliding in the rear of his father's store, sustaining fractures of both arms just above the wrists, and a badly bruised face and body.

CITIZEN WILL BUILD AT BERKELEY

BERKELEY, June 10.—Oliver C. Coffin will, with his family, move to Berkeley in the near future. He will build on Euclid avenue. He was for twenty-two years on the San Francisco Daily Report. At present he is in the office of the San Francisco News Bureau. He has a son, Herbert, who is a salesman with S. M. Dodge & Son, 2113 Shattuck avenue.

A SAN FRANCISCO PHYSICIAN

Uses Herpicide Successfully in Treating Syphilis of the Beard.

He says: "I recently treated a case of syphilis (similar to 'barber's itch') of the lower lip, with Newbro's Herpicide. There was an extensive loss of beard with inflammation extending well down on the chin. The result of the application of Herpicide was most gratifying. The loss of beard ceased and a new growth of hair is now taking place over the once inflamed area."

(Signed) Melville E. O'Neill, M. D., "San Francisco, Cal."

Herpicide kills the dandruff germ and permits the hair to grow abundantly.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Michigan.

ROBBER ARRESTED

Tries to Hide From Officers Behind His Bed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—A man giving the name of William Straub has been arrested and placed in the City Prison on a charge of having attempted at an early hour this morning to blow open a safe in a Pacific street saloon.

Straub was taken into custody while hiding behind a bed in a room he had rented the night previously in a lodging house directly over the saloon.

Between four and five o'clock this morning, while passing the saloon, Charles Eyer saw a man at work on the safe.

He called for police assistance and three officers responded. On forcing the door it was found that the combination had been knocked from the safe, while dynamite, a fuse, a jimmy and a crowbar were left on the floor.

When found Straub offered no resistance.

DEALS PLACED ON RECORD

TRANSACTIONS OF WHICH OFFICIAL NOTICE HAS BEEN TAKEN.

Henry Brace has mortgaged a piece of property recently purchased by him from Enoch Morrill on Shattuck avenue near Alcatraz in Berkeley to the Oakland Bank of Savings for the sum of $10,000.

R. R. Bigelow and R. H. Warfield have sold two plots of land on Dwight Way near Dana street in Berkeley to Willis G. Witter for the sum of $13,000.

William Clephane has entered into a contract with John E. Bigelow for the erection of a two-story building to be used as a store and flat, at Emerson and Shattuck avenues in Berkeley to cost $5,800.

J. C. Reis has filed a release of a $100,000 mortgage on the lands of Charles M. Dougherty near Pleasanton.

A house to cost $3,800 is to be built by Mrs. Cochrane on Walnut street near East street, Berkeley. The contract has been let to E. B. Spiller. Ellen Stokes has mortgaged her property on Sixteenth street near Jefferson to the Oakland Bank of Savings for $5,000.

George Raab has let a contract to F. C. Richter to build him a cottage near Emeryville to cost $1,875.

The Claremont Park Company in furtherance of its scheme of improving a part of the Adams tract has let a contract to Blake & Bliger for the erection of two stone gateways.

F. Jahnholts has given F. C. Richter the contract to build him a cottage to cost $2,800 near Emeryville.

WOMAN COMES TO HIS DEFENCE

Mrs. Freda Thompson took the stand today in the trial of W. F. Denning on a charge of forgery, and stated that she had sent a man by the name of Hughes to have a particular Singer Sewing Machine contract filled out which the company alleges was filled out by Denning himself, and for the signing of which he is now being prosecuted on a charge of forgery.

Four years ago Mrs. Thompson was sued for divorce by her husband, Andrew P. Thompson, a sailor, who accused her with being intimate with Denning. She was granted a divorce and went away to sea, while Mrs. Thompson has still kept up her friendship for Denning and is at present trying to assist him in getting him out of his difficulty.

CASE CONTINUED.

Martha Johnson, accused by Mrs. Kate Phelan of battery by throwing a bucketful of water, had her case continued in Police Judge Samuels court this morning until next Tuesday. Mrs. Phelan was removing her effects from 761 Washington streets when the alleged battery occurred. There has been bad feeling between the two women for some time owing to Mrs. Johnson's husband having been arrested on a serious charge at the instance of Mrs. Phelan.

CASE CONTINUED.

The case of Ernest Lafong accused of battery on Robert Whittitt, was continued by Police Judge Smith this morning until Monday.

BUNKER HILL DAY

CELEBRATION WILL BE HELD AT LOS GATOS NEXT SATURDAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—The Bunker Hill Association, The Native Sons of Vermont, The Sons of the American Revolution, The California Society of Pioneers, and The First Corps Cadets will celebrate the 18th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill, on Saturday, June 17, by an excursion to Los Gatos, where the literary exercises will be held.

People living in Oakland can take the train at Thirteenth and Webster, on the morning of the excursion, Saturday, June 17, at 8:15 a. m., which will connect with the special excursion train for Los Gatos at the narrow-gauge mole.

Tickets can be purchased at the depot on the morning of the excursion. Round trip adult's ticket will be one dollar.

The First Corps Cadets, under the command of Captain Leland S. Ramsdell and Capt. S. W. Roskamp, will march in uniform along Market and Third streets to the train on the morning of the excursion, and will be headed by their band of twenty-four pieces.

The following exercises will take place at the Pavilion of Bunker Hill Park, on the arrival of the train:

Grand patriotic overture, "American Republic," Anthem Military Band, Sig. Spradina, director; prayer, Rev. Ernest Bradley, chaplain of the day and rector of St. Stephens Church; opening remarks, Senator Geo. C. Perkins, president of the day; song, "The Sword of Bunker Hill," Alfred Wilkie; oration, Hon. Samuel M. Shortridge; selection, "My Own United States," Oakland Masonic Quartet; song, "The Star Spangled Banner," Mrs. Chas. Poulter; original poem, written especially for the day, Prof. E. Knickton; solo, "Yankee Doodle Boy," Ralph Armitage, chorus by the members of the First Corps Cadets; selection, "The Shot Heard Around the World," Oakland Masonic Quartet; song, "America," first and last stanzas, audience; benediction, Rev. Ernest Bradley, chaplain of the day; closing selection, "Stars and Stripes" (Sousa), Anthem Military Band.

After the exercises and luncheon, dancing will be resumed in the pavilion with the music of the fine military band.

The games and races will take part on the track at 3:30 p. m., for which valuable prizes have been secured.

Citizens of San Francisco and of other towns have been requested to raise the flag; also the public officials, on all public buildings in honor of the day.

The following are the committee in charge of the exercises of the day:

Alexander G. Wells, Dr. J. Mora Moss, Edwin Bonnell, Col. A. S. Hubbard, S. W. Holladay, Judge J. J. De Haven, John I. Spear, Edwin A. T. Gallagher, Aylott E. Cotton, John M. Burnett, Senator Geo. C. Perkins, A. O. Cotton, Capt. Leland S. Ramsdell, Co. A, Capt. F. W. Roskamp, Co. B, Quartermaster Sergeant G. Stansberry, Co. A, Corp. C. Becker, Co. A, Geo. Partridge, A. E. Coott, Daniel T. Cole, A. L. Adams, E. W. Woodward, Dr. S. H. Roberts, Dr. John Townsend, Hugh Clark, E. F. Joy, Mrs. L. J. Eady, Mrs. S. W. Denning, Mrs. J. W. Perry, Mrs. Annie E. Nevers, Alfred Wilkie, Prof. E. Knickton, Robt. Collier, Gardner Sanchez, Ernest A. Lee, Roberts Vandercook, H. E. Teller, Martin A. Lathrop, Archie De Kaniel, Geo. W. Caswell.

WILL REQUEST AN ARMISTICE

NEXT MOVE TO BE MADE IN THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Officials in Washington who have been closely following the negotiations conducted by the President to bring about peace between Russia and Japan expect that the next move will be a request for an armistice, as it is not thought that hostilities will continue after plenipotentiaries are named to arrange to name peace terms.

It is thought here that the United States Government will be the medium of communication until some diplomatic channel is established between the belligerent nations.

THEODORE GIER IS HOME

COMMISSIONER SAYS THAT PORTLAND FAIR IS SUCCESS.

Theodore Gier, one of the Alameda County Commissioners to the Portland Fair, returned from the north this morning.

He states that in his opinion the fair will be a success and that thousands of people will be attracted to the coast.

He states that the California building is a great success and that the Alameda county exhibit is an excellent one.

DID NOT KNOW OF CRAFT

JOHN C. DRISCOLL DECLARES HE HAS NO KNOWLEDGE ON SUBJECT.

CHICAGO, June 10.—With neither side ready to make concessions, the sixty-fifth day of the teamsters' strike was minus the usual program of peace conferences.

The sudden return of John C. Driscoll, wanted to give testimony before the Grand Jury on "labor graft," and his disclaimer of knowledge of any of the alleged transactions gave the day's events the single light of the sensational.

After a conference with United States Attorney Drake, Driscoll promised to appear before the Grand Jury on Monday.

ATHLETES ON THE FIELD

CHICAGO, June 10.—More than 600 athletes from ten States contested in the annual inter-scholastic meet on Marshall Field today under the auspices of the University of Chicago. The contestants represented 75 different high schools and academies. From the standpoint of attendance and number of entries, the meet eclipsed all previous similar events here.

TO GIVE PRIZE FOR BEST ESSAY

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 10.—Dr. Brown Ayers, president of the University of Tennessee, this city, has received from W. J. Bryan a draft for $400, offered as a prize for the best essay by a student of the University on "The Principles of the Free Government."

Mr. Bryan, as trustee of the Phils S. Bennett estate, is distributing $10,000 among twenty-five colleges of as many States.

WOODMEN WILL MOURN

HAYWARDS, June 10.—Cypress Camp, Woodmen of the World, is to have its annual memorial service tomorrow afternoon at the Haywards Congregational Church. A musical program will be given, and there will be addresses by two prominent Woodmen neighbors, E. F. Denmore, the former pastor of the church here, and Rev. E. Dent Naylor, the present pastor and the chaplain of the Alameda County Convention of Woodmen.

Other members of the local camp and the surrounding towns will favor with musical selections. The church is to be handsomely decorated with the colors of the lodge, as well as with flowers and drapery.

The service is to commence at two o'clock.

Those on the committee of arrangements are the following: P. Wilbert, chairman; A. De Camp and W. J. Rainage.

DOESN'T LIKE FIT OF CLOTHES

MINER, SAID TO BE INSANE, POSSESSED OF PECULIAR IDEA.

Charles Christy, a miner, fifty-eight years of age, was taken to the insane ward of the Receiving Hospital this morning and will be examined Monday on a charge of insanity. For ten years he worked in Korea and while there he was badly beaten by some Japanese, and it is believed that his present trouble was caused by the injuries received at that time.

He is possessed of the idea that the clothes he is wearing at the present time are not just the thing and his relatives have been having a hard time to make him present a respectable appearance. He has been living with a sister at 1737 Euclid avenue, Berkeley.

JUDGE SHOWED MERCY

J. P. LAVIN CELEBRATED HIS RELEASE FROM SAN QUENTIN.

J. P. Lavin was not punished this morning for having imbibed too heavily by Police Judge Samuels on one of the most novel defenses ever made in court.

Lavin said that he had just been released from San Quentin and that he celebrated his release by drinking heavily.

It happens that Police Judge Samuels was the Prosecuting Attorney when Lavin was convicted of burglary in the Superior Court.

Lavin made a sensational plea for clemency before the jury, but he was convicted of robbing a saloon. Judge Samuels states that the plea of Lavin before the jury was one of the greatest oratorical efforts he ever heard from the lips of an uncultured person.

Lavin stated this morning that if released he would try to walk the straight and narrow path.

MAXWELL SUES BARRETT

POSTOFFICE CONTRACTOR MADE DEFENDANT IN AN ACTION.

Suit has been brought by John P. Maxwell against Augustus E. Barrett for hardware furnished in the erection of the postoffice in the sum of $1,771.93. The complaint recites the fact that Augustus E. Barrett was given the contract by the United States Government for the erection of the new postoffice for the sum of $150,000, and that Barrett in turn gave Maxwell the contract to furnish the hardware, which in all amounts to $1,771.93 and which he alleges has not been paid.

This, it is believed, is only one of several suits to be brought against Barrett by local merchants who have not been settled with. The Government still is holding back 10 per cent of the payment, and it is to get his money out of this sum that Maxwell has brought his action.

JUDGE SHOWED MERCY

J. P. LAVIN CELEBRATED HIS RELEASE FROM SAN QUENTIN.

J. P. Lavin was not punished this morning for having imbibed too heavily by Police Judge Samuels on one of the most novel defenses ever made in court.

Lavin said that he had just been released from San Quentin and that he celebrated his release by drinking heavily.

It happens that Police Judge Samuels was the Prosecuting Attorney when Lavin was convicted of burglary in the Superior Court.

Lavin made a sensational plea for clemency before the jury, but he was convicted of robbing a saloon. Judge Samuels states that the plea of Lavin before the jury was one of the greatest oratorical efforts he ever heard from the lips of an uncultured person.

Lavin stated this morning that if released he would try to walk the straight and narrow path.

MANAGER SMITH WILL GO TO NEW YORK.

GUY S. SMITH.

—Photo Schurz

Guy S. Smith, manager of the Macdonough theater, has completed arrangements to go to New York in a few days. Mr. Smith will combine business with pleasure.

He has several large deals to look after for the local theater. During his trip to New York he will visit all the principal theaters and secure ideas for the improvement of the Macdonough.

The local theater under the management of Mr. Smith, has had a very successful season. The house has been a success and the profits have come up to expectations. With the engagement of John Drew on June 20 and June 21, the theater will close for the summer season. Van Britten, the popular theatrical critic, will accompany Mr. Smith east.

NICE TO FORGET YOUR STOMACH

You know anyone in perfect health never "feels" at the stomach; it's forgotten like any other part of a perfect running machine. No jar, no shock, no sensations at all; just easy, pleasant, restful work—duty well done.

THE WAY

lies in the proper selection of food and drink, getting down to Nature's principles, plenty of good air, good water, and particularly plenty of good food that will easily digest, and nourish and rebuild, not clog up.

A Food Expert, understanding how the body worked upon food and what kind of elements it required to rebuild itself, used this knowledge in a skillful way to produce a perfect food and called it

Grape-Nuts

There is the natural Phosphate of Potash and Albumen, from which the life forces make the soft gray filling of nerve centres and brain, so brain lag and nervous prostration disappear for the user of Grape-Nuts.

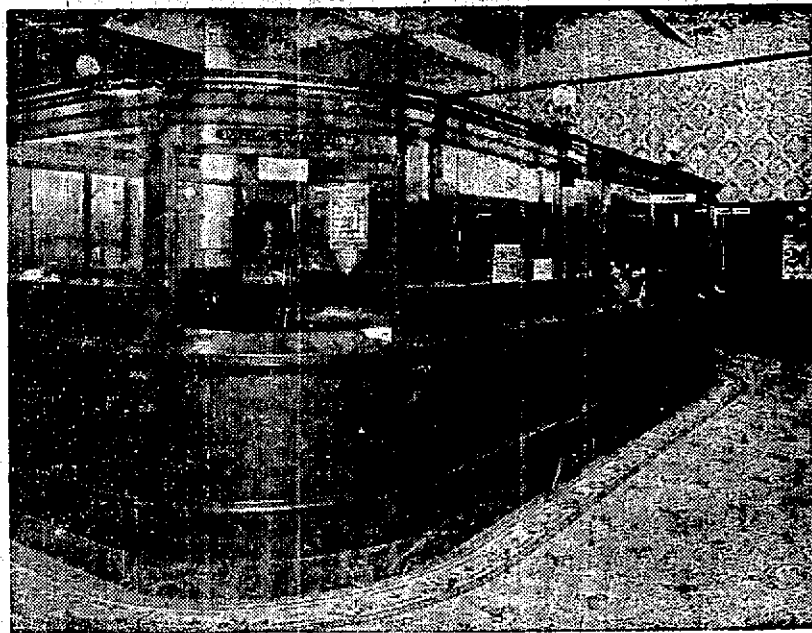

Then again, in Grape-Nuts the starchy part of the Wheat and Barley has been changed into sugar by cooking at the factory, and, as that is exactly the condition which starchy food, bread, cake, oatmeal, potatoes, etc., assumes after the first act of natural digestion has taken place, so we find Grape-Nuts has passed through this process, outside the body and is therefore properly termed pre-digested, a tremendous help for those who are a bit weak in digestive power, and so comes.

The Old Joy

of health, with its youthful glow and warm, keen pulse of vigor and energy will come back. The years are forgotten, and so is the stomach, but you'll KNOW you have a strong, sturdy, well-fed Brain, for all the important brain-building elements are there in GRAPE-NUTS. Dozens of choice recipes for fascinating dishes found in the pkg.

Trial 10 days of GRAPE-NUTS proves

"There's a reason."

AN INTERIOR VIEW OF THE SECURITY BANK AND TRUST COMPANY AT THE CORNER OF BROADWAY AND ELEVENTH STREET.

POPULAR BANKING INSTITUTION THAT HAS RAPIDLY MADE ADVANCEMENT

The Security Bank and Trust Company was opened for business on the first of December, 1903. The rapid growth of the institution soon convinced the men directing its affairs that the future was assured and justified larger and better premises. Accordingly their present quarters were taken for a term of years. The bank is now located at the southeast corner of Broadway and Eleventh street—practically the heart of the business section. The changes in the building and the installing of new fixtures attracted a great deal of attention, and many favorable comments were made on the splendid appearance of the banking room. It is a model of beauty, with every possible convenience for its patrons, as well as the employees. It is finished in oak wood, an importation from the Hawaiian Islands, this being the only bank in the United States utilizing this beautiful wood. The burglar proof vault is of the Diebold make of the very latest patent. There are separate rooms for the use of the officers and directors. A ladies' parlor is neatly and prettily arranged where the women patrons can attend to their bank business without publicity, if desired. The bank does a savings business as well as commercial and small banks are issued to those desiring to open a savings deposit. The officers are all well-known capitalists and business men, which certainly adds prestige to this concern. The president is Mr. H. C. Capwell, one of the well-known proprietors of the Lace House, a gentleman who is held in the highest confidence by the public, and who is widely and favorably known in the community. Mr. A. D. Wilson, the vice president of the bank is an old resident of Oakland and held in the highest esteem by all who know him; he has large realty interests in this section. Mr. Charles A. Smith, the cashier, is a most suitable person for the highly responsible position he holds. He is fully competent and fills the office to the satisfaction of the bank and the large number of depositors. He has had long experience in the banking business both in the East and on the coast. Mr. R. S. Knight is the assistant cashier. Such a concern as the Security Bank and Trust Company is a credit to any city. The directors of the bank are as follows: T. W. Corder, wool merchant; A. D. Wilson, capitalist; H. C. Capwell, President H. C. Capwell Co.; C. J. Heeseman, gent's furnishing; C. E. Snook, attorney, Board of Regents, State University; Theo. Gier, President Theodore Gier Co.; Dr. Haywood G. Thomas, eye and ear specialist; W. F. Burbank, capitalist; E. P. Vandercok, real estate; W. H. L. Hyman, Deputy Dist. Attorney; James L. de Fremery, capitalist.

RING GOSSIP.

Bob Fitzsimmons' Chances—How Hyland "Queered" Himself.

By ED SMITH

Mike Schreck says that when he and "Old Man" Bob Fitzsimmons come together at Salt Lake, July 3, he will show that Fitz belongs in the pugilistic graveyard.

The sporting public has expected to see Fitz placed on the shelf so many times but he has fooled them, excepting once, when he met Jeffries. So the public is a little shy in expressing an opinion as to whether or not Schreck can down the "grand old man" of the ring.

After watching Fitz train for and fight George Gardner here some time ago, and knowing his opinion as to whether or not Schreck can down the "grand old man" of the ring.

has not done anything since it certainly looks at this distance that if Schreck is the dashing young fighter his friends claim, he should beat the old man.

When Bob was training for Gardner, he was stiff and sore all the time, and his best friends were not a bit overconfident that he would win. That he did weather the twenty rounds, was due to a few circumstances that may not govern this contest. One was the seconding of the premier of all seconds, Billy Delaney, who nursed the old boy through the fight as only a cautious, brainy second can do.

When Bob arrived at Corbett's the night of the contest to weigh in, he was a few minutes late, and Gardner, who was waiting for him, was standing by the scales. Fitz, elbowing his way through the crowd and when he reached Gardner he slapped him on the back as hard as any man was ever hit, at the same time saying, "Hello, George, how'd you get on?"

It is said that Alex Greig, who was waiting for him, was standing by the scales. Fitz, elbowing his way through the crowd and when he reached Gardner he slapped him on the back as hard as any man was ever hit, at the same time saying, "Hello, George, how'd you get on?"

Time is a fighter who not even he can get the best of, and it seems to me that age must be to him a heavy weight.

Fitz gives his age as 44 and Schreck says 24. The chances are that Bob is nearer to 50 than 44, and while he is certainly a "grand old man," rather Time is a fighter who not even he can get the best of, and it seems to me that age must be to him a heavy weight.

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—While sitting on his back porch the other day, surrounded by his family, Jim Jeffries espied a young man climbing the hill from the car line. The young man was dressed in a blue coat, cream colored trousers and white gloves.

"Well, would you take a pipe at what's coming now!" gasped Jeff.

"Wonder what he is, anyway. Looks like a ribbon counter Lizzie, don't he?"

WHAT THEY DID.

The young man halted at the head of the drive and spent several minutes in picking the fox-tails out of his garments. Then he straightened himself for the last time, patted the damp love lock on either brow, twirled his necktie and approached Jim, who believes that one member of the family in the limelight is enough, arose and walked out to meet the stranger.

That young man evidently pleased, and noted the fact that the champion had noticed his coming, smiled and stuck out a lily-white hand.

"Ah, how'd you do, Mr. Jeffries?" queried the visitor.

"Finner frog hair," said the champion, engulfing the pretty hand and squeezing it until the young man shifted his weight from one foot to the other.

Allowed to hold his own hand once more, he caressed his rings thoughtfully and looking up, smiled again.

"Maybe I can do something for you," hinted Jeffries, fanning the air for some excuse for the sparse apparition.

DON'T YOU REMEMBER?

"Mister Jeffries," said the young man, removing his hat and patting his brow with a baby blue handkerchief, "do you remember about four years ago a young man came to you at Cauter Park and asked you for an autograph?"

Jeffries wrinkled his brow until it resembled corrugated iron roofing and whistled between his teeth. It was plain to be seen that the big fellow WANTED to remember the circumstance if it would please his guest, but equally plain that to be perfectly honest, he was forced to disclaim all such recollection.

"The young man," went on the questioner anxiously, "wore a Panama hat with a red, white and blue band and I think he had on a maroon necktie and those big ones with the rings on the ends."

Jeffries looked up in the air in a praiseworthy attempt to appear lost in thought. The visitor continued almost sadly:

AND HIS NAME WAS—

"The young man's name was Forname V. Clyde Forspense. Don't you remember?"

"No," answered Jeff, soberly, "no, and mit for the July fight, but Manager Levy is at sea as to who will make the best drawing card for his club.

Hamilton and Britt were talked of, but have since been dropped.

Levy is thinking of bringing Kid Sullivan, who made such a good showing with Nelson, out to box the plumber, bookkeeper and actor fighters. Either of the pair should make a good fight with Britt, but why Sullivan is any better than Hamilton I cannot see.

As a drawing card the two Native Sons should draw better than the Easterners.

Sullivan and Hamilton fought in the East, and it is said, although the contest was declared a draw, that Eddie had a slight lead.

The only other contests we have to go on is the Sullivan-Nelson and Hamilton-Nelson fights. According to the newspapers, Sullivan showed up well in the early rounds and held his own with the Dana throughout the contest.

The Hamilton-Nelson fight is still fresh in the memory of the sporting public, and everyone knows that had the contest ended at the tenth round, Hamilton would have received the decision, as he had a big lead over the Dana.

What Nelson would have done to Sullivan going a longer route is guess work, and for this reason it is hard to tell which of the two boxers named would have the best chance to conquer James Edward.

Manager Levy said last night that he would secure the best card he could and that he would endeavor to give the patrons of the game a good evening's sport.

Sammy McIlstock, better known as "Sammy," was to cost $500 to "Dick" Hyland can beat Eddie Hamilton. It is said that Alex Greig, who was waiting for him, was standing by the scales.

FIVE DOUBLE PLAYS ARE MADE.

TACOMA, Wash., June 10.—Seattle won a hard-fought battle yesterday, with Charley Hall at the helm. He pitched a fairly good game and proved effective when the Tigers needed hits, hence the visitors maintained their lead all the way.

Kemmer's home run gave them the first score. Singles by C. Hall Shields and Houtz made it three, and the last was scored by Feeney on a pass, and hits by Shields and Walters.

A pass to Doyle, followed by two hits and a sacrifice, gave Tacoma two. The last was scored by Lynch on a hit by the pitcher, and singles by Graham and Hogan.

Kane reared after one of his fingers was split by a pitched ball. Both teams did sensational fielding, there being five double plays. Attendance, 1,000. Score:

It took ten innings and the umpire Thursday for the Seals to defeat Oakland with a score of 1 to 0, and it took eleven innings for the Seals to defeat Oakland yesterday with a score of 1 to 0.

One inning was much like another from the start. Moskiman and Williams occupied the box, and while the Gomer player played an errorless game, with six assists, Williams got four assists and one error, but it was rather due to the differences in the pitchers' chances than any difference in their fielding.

IRWIN IS STAR.

Irwin was again the star of the game with three hits, one of them a two-bagger, but Spencer scored the run. At one time the bleachers and the grand stand arose on masses and cheered for a play-party, no being forgotten. The unexpected happened this once, and Gochbauer hit the ball in the last of the tenth. It was a clean hit over second and Gochbauer decorated the bag for a brief instant, while his helpless competers, overcome by astonishment, weakly fanned out and left him standing there.

FRANKS DID IT.

One of the most spectacular plays of the season was in the second half of the ninth. Spencer was out at first and a fine throw by Franks caught Waldron. Wheeler hit to short center, and a safe drive by Hildebrand made it look like the closing chapter. Irwin came to the bat and landed on the goocher's foot. The ball was almost an impossible one, and Wheeler was in the act of coming in, when Franks dove for it and got it. Wheeler was so paralyzed he stood still and the retriever trotted up and reined the slide.

for he's a growing boy needs lots of nourishing food and knows a good thing when he tastes it. That's why most boys in Oakland like a piece as we elders used to call it—a slice of bread and butter—perhaps with a layer atop of molasses sugar jelly or jam—the bread to be of our baking. Give the youngsters at least part of what they most prefer and watch 'em grow.

DEALS MADE IN LOCAL REALTY MARKET.

Brisk Trade the Past Week is Reported—Some of the Sales.

Although the vacation season is at hand the usual list-up in realty circles is yet to be noticed. Inquiries are as frequent and sales as numerous as they were in midwinter—a condition probably without a parallel in Oakland. While there have been no particularly large transactions the past week or two, many small sales have brought the volume of business up to the average.

The efforts of the Board of Trade and Merchants Exchange to encourage new industries to come to the city are bearing fruit. Advertising matter which these organizations are sending East has brought many inquiries regarding the opportunities and accommodations that Oakland offers.

BIG MANUFACTORY.
Negotiations are under way which, if successfully carried out will mean a new manufactory for this city that will give employment to not less than 400 skilled mechanics. The firm is prepared to invest $300,000 in the purchase of a site and the erection and equipment of a modern plant.

A site is desired where freight may be handled by water as well as rail. The J. H. MacDonald Company is endeavoring to locate the concern.

NEW PLANING MILL.
Another industry which will help Oakland is the Santa Clara Planing Mill which recently took a long lease of the entire block bounded by Madison and Jackson and Fourth and Fifth streets. Ground for the foundations of the new plant was broken this week and the company figures are that the building in two months. Three good-sized buildings are to be put up including the main mill which will be 60x154 feet, each shed 24x70 feet and an engine and boiler house. There will be an immense storage yard. Over 200,000 feet of lumber is now en route and more is being prepared for shipment. The new plant will cost in the neighborhood of $30,000 and will give employment to from twenty to thirty men at the outset.

PROVES GOOD INVESTMENT.
Every now and then one hears of a profitable sale that has been consummated within a few blocks of the proposed cross-town extension of the Key route. Twenty-second street. This time it is H. C. Elke who has cleaned up a snug little sum in that locality. Three months ago Mr. Elke bought through Meade & Bell a lot at the northeast corner of Lydian and Market streets for $1,800. He built a 60x60 home on the site. A couple of weeks ago he sold house and lot for $4,000 cash, making a clean profit of $1,600 on the three months investment.

WOODLAWN PARK.
The Realty Bonds and Finance Company report the sale of thirty-five lots in Woodlawn Park a new tract on College avenue which was placed on the market less than two weeks ago. In addition sixteen lots have been reserved and the transfer of fourteen more is expected to be made before Monday. The number of sales is considered extraordinary, considering the short time the lots have been on the market. In view of the fact that very little grading has been done thus far. The street work is to be done by the sellers and includes sewers, grading, macadamizing, cement walks, gutters and shade trees.

SNYDER BUSY.
A. J. Snyder reports a number of good sales the past week, including a house and lot on the north side of Thirty-first street for W. Hall to Grace E. Irving for $2,600. Two lots at Adelina station in Berkeley for E. Brune to J. Z. McGregor who will build two cottages set of flats on 25th street, near Cypress for M. Bateman to G. Geamini, lot 40x140 on Thirty-first street, between Grove street and Telegraph avenue for J. L. Spencer to F. M. Furus for $3,500. Lot on Harmon street east of Telegraph avenue for J. T. Hirsch to Irene E. Hines and to the same party for A. D. Wilson a lot in the University Park tract.

Mr. Snyder will file the coming week a map of his new subdivision tract in Lodi. Vista Terrace. The tract is bounded by Oakland Mariposa and Santa Rosa avenues. Although not yet on the market three of the thirty or more lots have been sold.

SELLS HIS HOME.
Former Superintendent of Schools J. P. Garlick has sold his residence at the corner of Bay Vista and Oakland avenues to Mr. Hendberg of Honolulu. The house is at present standing at the Hotel Metropole. He has leased the house for one year to B. F. Stone. The price paid for the residence is said to have been in the neighborhood of $10,000. Taylor Brothers report a record-breaking month for May and for the first week in June their business has exceeded expectations. They report several fair-sized sales of residence property. W. E. Adams has sold a 100 square foot lot on the southwest corner of Market and Twenty-second streets to M. Watkinson for $10,000. Three months ago the same lot could have been had for less than $5,000. Extensive improvements and building

How's Your Complexion?

If your complexion is muddy, sallow and pimply you are probably troubled with a torpid liver, and more or less constipation. You must have a movement of the bowels each day otherwise the bile from the liver and impurities of the body become absorbed into the blood instead of being cast off through the natural channels, the bowels take care.

It might be better to say "VIGORETS" are a tiny chocolate coated tonic laxative tablet that moves the bowels gently yet thoroughly each day, curing chronic constipation, biliousness and sick headache. They cool the system and purify the blood and are sold by druggists in 25c packages (50 tablets) and trial size (15 tablets) for 10 cents. Sold in Oakland by operations are reported at Legan Heights. New streets are being opened and quite a number of pretty cottages are in course of construction. Recent sales made by Hugh M. Cameron include a cottage on Eighth Avenue and Tenth street for Mrs. Ada Bruhus to Lawrence T. Christensen, ranch on the Tunnel road for W. A. Wilson to Warren F. Lee lot on Telegraph avenue north of Nineteenth street for G. Matthews to A. A. Chiarone, house and lot on Eighth Avenue for A. W. Manning to T. O. Hulman for $4,500, house on Third and Linden streets for the Hill estate to Mrs. Richard Kearns for $20,000. East Eighteenth street and Tenth Avenue to Mrs. Ella Laws.

BUILD COUNTRY HOME.
The contract will be let in a few days for a handsome brick and stone residence for Calvin Brougher at Claremont. Features of the house will be an old castle tower of brick and a port cocherie the roof of which will be supported by four stone columns with handsomely carved capitals.

BANQUET HALL.
Plans are being prepared by Architect A. W. Smith of this city for a banquet hall for G. D. Davis and the caterer. The need of a hall of this kind has long been felt. Heretofore it has been necessary to make use of fraternal and club halls which are not always convenient. A building 25,000 feet is to be put up at the corner of Twelfth and Alice streets and it will be constructed with the idea of affording every convenience and accommodation for banquet parties. The interior is to be handsomely finished with a large amount of tapestry and leaded glass.

BUSINESS BLOCK.
Work will be started in a few days on a three story brick business block for Dr. J. M. Shannon near the corner of Telegraph avenue and Eighteenth street. J. H. Welby has the contract. There will be a store on the ground floor and the upper floors will be devoted to offices and flats. The building will have a frontage of 25 feet and a depth of 100 feet. It will cost $50,000.

The structure is to adjoin the one-story building now in course of construction by James F. Taylor at Eighteenth street and Telegraph avenue which is being built sufficiently strong to hold three stories if desired. It is stated that a new concern has leased the entire ground floor with the exception of a small space for a drug store for an automobile garage.

Among the beautiful new homes going up in the Alta Piedmont tract is that being built for Richard E. Jeffrey, and which is to cost the victor of $7,000.

ANOTHER BERKELEY BLOCK.
There seems to be no let-up in the building boom in Berkeley. Following closely the announcement that J. L. Barker is to erect a four-story Mission style office and store building on Bancroft avenue comes the information that A. Marshall is to build a handsome dancing pavilion and bowling alleys at the corner of Telegraph avenue and Bancroft way at an outlay of $10,000. In this building also the Mission style of architecture is to be followed. Features of the interior will be rustic beams and maple floors.

NEW RESIDENCES.
Harry L. Holcomb will build 7 seven-room residence on Roosevelt terrace to cost $8,000. The house will contain many attractive features including a twenty-four foot porch on the west side, which will be inclosed in glass. The interior is to be finished in natural redwood and pine. The J. H. MacDonald Company reports that a number of handsome residences are about to be built on the Highlands subdivision of the Adams Point tract which this firm has recently placed on the market.

Four houses are to be built in Berkeley by J. A. Marshall. Two of the houses will be in Mission style with plaster exterior.

Apartment House Changes Hands

A deed recorded yesterday by P. E. Bowles, a banker, to W. F. Burns, a San Francisco manufacturer transferring the property on the southwest corner of Thirteenth and Jackson street, closes another large transaction in Oakland realty. The property is 150x80 feet, and is known as the twelve Lakeside apartments, which is considered one of the handsomest apartment properties in the city.

A fact demonstrative of such properties in Oakland, is the present income derived from rents of the building which is upwards of $4,000 per month or an interest bearing investment of 8 per cent gross revenue on $60,000. The Layman Real Estate Company were the brokers in the transaction.

MIRAMONTE TRACT SOLD.
A large sale of suburban property was closed last week consisting of the Miramonte Tract in Berkeley. The price paid was about $23,000, and was purchased by a syndicate of San Francisco. It contains fifteen acres, and will be subdivided the lots to be sold for choice residences. The subdivision will be named Peralta Park.

ADAMS POINT TRACT.
J. H. MacDonald & Co. report that the Highland division of the Adams Point Tract, which contains about fifty acres, is creating much interest. Photographic views of the entire tract have been taken and everything will be in shape to begin selling operations next week. The opening of this tract is creating a great deal of interest off through the local market and it is predicted that the entire tract will go fast at the prices asked.

FREE TROLLEY RIDE.
Krigbaum & Company will give a free trolley ride to the new Fruitvale subdivision recently opened by this firm. All are invited to ride free. Lunch and refreshments will be served on the grounds, and a general good time and the sale of many lots is expected. The property is located near Vernon Station on the Leona Heights Electric line. The special cars will leave Thirteenth and Franklin streets, Sunday at 10:15 a. m.

TRACT TO BE SUBDIVIDED.
The West Coast Realty Company report securing a large tract of land to subdivide. This firm recently disposed of two hundred lots in the McLean Tract Fruitvale without the slightest difficulty.

Plenty of Oakland Readers Have the Same Experience.

Don't neglect an aching back. It will get worse every year. Backache is really kidney ache. To cure the back you must cure the kidneys. If you don't other kidney ills follow—Urinary trouble, diabetes, Bright's disease. An Oakland citizen tells you how—the cure is easy.

D. D. Davis salesman in dress-goods department of Sallinger's department store residence, No. 124 Broadway, Alameda says: "If I paid across the back which clung to me persistently, for at least twelve months is any indication of kidney complaint then I had it. Some three years ago just such an attack occurred and knowing what I suffered with I noticed in an Oakland paper that Doan's Kidney Pills were for the kidneys and the kidneys alone. I went to a drug store for a box and tried it. If the results obtained from the treatment and not been effective I never would have gone out of my way to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to personal friends. I know of more than 60 who have used Doan's Kidney Pills and who are just as emphatic in their endorsement as I am. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. $100 REWARD, $100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dead-end disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh of the Bladder. It is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CLEGG & CO., Toledo, O. KEEP IT TO YOURSELF

There is perhaps not a man or woman who has not something which they treasure and the knowledge of which they would keep absolutely to themselves. In these days people are not telling their business to everybody and it is necessary that they should have a safe place in which to keep their most prized and most secret belongings. The proper place for such valuables is in the safety deposit vaults of the Central Bank. To have the key to an exclusive box in these vaults which are recognized by all as being the safest on earth, costs but four dollars a year. They are being used daily by hundreds of people who value safety and secrecy. Why not you? There are convenient parlors, tables and stationery for patrons who wish to attend to their business while in the bank.

ALEXANDER DELMAR,

The Only Yogi Mediator of Secret Influence in America.

Owing to the fact that there are many people in San Francisco and vicinity, who cannot at the present afford to pay my former price, yet who are anxious to secure services of a high standard, I have concluded to reduce my former price, and, for a short time only, offer my services for

No Higher—$1.

Make no mistake when seeking the advice of a clairvoyant; it pays to consult the best. As a seer and interpreter of things hidden to man, Prof. Delmar has put on the road to fortune by him. Why not you? Many profess the gift of clairvoyance and mediumship, but few indeed, are so gifted. One visit to a genuine occult scientist will repay you for many disappointments.

I, Alexander Delmar, do hereby agree and guarantee to make you no charge if I fail to call your name in full, names of your friends, enemies and rivals. I promise to tell you whether your husband, wife or sweetheart is true or false; how to gain the love of the one you most desire, or control or influence the actions of anyone, even though miles away; in fact, tell you every hope, fear or ambition of your life better than you can tell yourself without telling me one word, and if you are not absolutely satisfied when reading is over (you to be the judge) then pay me not a penny.

Professor Delmar is no stranger in San Francisco, but is well known to many, having demonstrated his marvelous powers here and in Oakland for several years. His old patrons are his warmest friends and it is common for callers to say: "You were recommended to me by a friend who called on you several years ago."

There is a power so subtle, yet so strong, that when employed by a master people are influenced without their knowledge into doing the wishes of others; bad habits are cured, estranged lovers are reconciled, happy marriages are brought about, it reunites the separated husband and wife, troubles are averted, enemies are overcome, success and advancement is secured, many things are accomplished by it for the good of those suffering in mind and body.

By this secret power, Prof. Delmar has in the past wrought wonders in results for his patrons. His record of success is marvelous. The secret of power and personal influence, how to win in business, love, law, health and all affairs made clear to you.

Prof. Delmar has on file at his offices personal introductions from prominent men and women from all parts of the world, who have been benefited by his remarkable powers.

No Fee in Advance, and You Pay Nothing Unless Perfectly Satisfied. No matter what your troubles or desires may be, Prof. Delmar will help you. SAN FRANCISCO.EDUCATORS AT EXERCISESNAMES OF THOSE WHO WON
HONORS AT FRUITVALE SCHOOL.

FRUITVALE, June 10.—At the graduation exercises of the Lower Fruitvale School Thursday evening one of the principal numbers on the program was an address by T. O. Crawford, county superintendent of schools. He spoke at length on the new Union High School, which is to be supported by the residents of the five school districts around here, Melrose, Lockwood, Bray, Elmhurst and Fruitvale. The residents of these districts voted to have the High School last April.

Mr. Crawford stated that he had always been in favor of this institution. "With the districts growing so rapidly in population and importance it was inevitable that a high school would be needed before long," he said. "I am very glad the movement succeeded for the new institution will increase the educational average for the county considerably. It will also be of untold benefit to the community."

Toward the close of his speech the superintendent gave a good deal of advice to the graduates and the other pupils. He said that they should be especially kind and grateful to their parents, and impressed the idea that the good old virtues should be carefully cultivated.

He was followed by Prof. F. S. Rosse-

GARRET M'ENERNEY TO BUILD A HOME.Well Known San Francisco Lawyer to Erect a Mansion on the Heights.

That eminent barrister, Garret M'ENERNEY, to whose capacious coffers are drifting all the big fees engendered in the litigious strife of this community, is soon to give ocular proof of his prosperity. Hitherto he gave so much of his time to his rich clients that he had little leisure in which to take note of things, for he did most of his sitting up in court. The other day he awoke to the fact that the available marine view home-sites were growing scarcer, and as he had a keen appreciation of the charms of the prospect afforded by the elevations of this peninsula he felt that he should bestir himself or be forever doomed to abide on the lower levels with nothing but the sky to elevate his thoughts from earth, and the towering mansions of the rich to bring them back again. So he reconnoitred along the highways of that section in which stately palaces express the pomp and pride of our richest citizens, and he selected for himself a lot from every inch of which you can see the waters of the bay rolling and gleaming in the gorgeous sunshine. It is on Broadway between Broderick and Baker, and thenceon is to be erected the home of the Garret M'ENERNEYS, something chaste, you can bet, and architecturally refined, for the attorney and his beautiful wife are people of culture.

SOME OF THE PECULIARITIES OF LAW PRACTICE.

Garret M'ENERNEY has escaped the fate of most lawyers who become identified with a cause celebre. Too much advertisement of the kind that a lawyer gets through being identified with a case that is in the public eye for several years is not beneficial. When he becomes absorbed in one case he neglects and loses his regular clients, and people get the impression that he is such a high-priced man that he is not available for ordinary litigation. If he loses the case the loss of prestige is great. Nothing succeeds like success, and the lawyer who has spent years on one case and lost it is so anxious to recoup that he is likely to take cases thereafter that it is impossible for him to win and a succession of defeats is fatal. When a lawyer strikes a losing gait everything goes against him. It is the wise lawyer who exercises caution in the acceptance of fees, for as soon as he loses prestige impressed by him, and then it is all off with him. The successful lawyer whose knowledge of the law has been vindicated by repeated victories, commands the respect and admiration of the bench, and the judges are inclined to resolve doubt in his favor, feeling that in the end he will prove that he is, right, and judges are zealous for their own reputation. So when a lawyer who has been losing, has been matched against a lawyer who has been winning the judge is bound to lean toward the latter in his rulings.

SOME FATAL CASES.

Nearly every big case tried in this State was followed by the decline of the profession of one or more prominent lawyers. The Sharon case was notable for several reasons, one being the number of lawyers who reached their finish through their connection with it. General Barnes was leader of the bar when the case opened, but at its close he lost his grip and was a has-been at the time of his death though his talents had lost none of their brilliance. Judge Terry and the Tylers lost their prestige and standing in the profession through their connection with the Sharon case. At the close of the Hylthe case Foote, Higton and Hart dropped out of the "going." Since the Fair case several lawyers who are at their apogee at its opening are now seldom heard of. But M'ENERNEY appears to be in the thick of the fighting, and most blissfully situated, inasmuch as most of his fees come through other lawyers who, knowing his worth, engage him to fight their biggest and hardest battles. So, all things considered, a thirty thousand dollar home site isn't an extravagance for M'ENERNEY.

ONE NOT IN THE LIMELIGHT.

But the lawyer in the public eye isn't the only one making big money. Some of the most successful lawyers are only occasionally heard of in court. And office practice is not to be despised. One of the most successful lawyers in this branch of the profession is John S. Drum, a young man associated with M'ENERNEY but not in partnership with him. He is the attorney for the Tevis estate which has enough business to keep any lawyer busy, but Drum numbers among his clients several banks and other institutions that have large dealings in real estate, being especially familiar with the intricate laws affecting titles. Though he is only in the middle thirties he passes on more titles than any dozen lawyers in San Francisco, and his judgment is accepted above that of the veterans of the bar. In former years the late John R. Jarboe and other lawyers acquired a reputation for expertise in the law by finding flaws, which is not a hard thing to do. It is as easy to pick flaws in land titles as in other things, and the lawyer who won't pass a title because there is a fly-speck on it, becomes known as a very safe, sane, conservative practitioner. Drum has made his reputation by adjudging the fly-specks immaterial and vindicating his judgment, and he never makes any fuss about it. He is the most modest of men, with a heart as big as his brain.—Town Talk.

Class of December, 1904:—Charles S. Corder, Fletcher G. Flaherty, Miles W. Gebhart, Frederic G. Hinkelley, Alfred B. Hawkins, Robert C. Kreuger, Dorothy McKnight, Elbert Pionteaux, Emma M. Schultz, Clara A. M. Snow, Sophie W. Todd, David L. Wilson, George S. Matsuda.

The young orator has been the president of the students for the past year.

Paul Martin, the principal of the school, played a piano solo as his share of the program. He selected the "Spinning Song" by Wagner-Liszt, and made a fine rendition of that classic. P. M. Fisher presented the diplomas to the graduates, making a short address, advising the young people to inculcate correct principles and live up to them during their lives.

The program as rendered was as follows:

Piano solo, Tarantelle.....Heller.

Priscilla Rugg.

Salutatory.....Thomas W. Carroll.

Vocal solo, The Better Land (S. Wesley Martin).....Dora E. Bradley.

Address.....Supt. T. O. Crawford.

Remarks, Prin. F. S. Rosseter, principal High School.

"Retrospection,".....Alice I. McCarter.

Piano solo.....Wagner-Liszt.

Toward the close of his speech the superintendent gave a good deal of advice to the graduates and the other pupils. He said that they should be especially kind and grateful to their parents, and impressed the idea that the good old virtues should be carefully cultivated.

He was followed by Prof. F. S. Rosse-

Betty Martin

Discusses Women and Street Car Conductors—Saloons That Cater to Youths.

"The initiated know, however, that there are several saloons in Oakland much patronized by callow young men. They know, also, that this patronage is winked at by the powers that be, although selling liquor to minors is an offense against the law and morality."—BETTY MARTIN.

The old, old story of the woman with the gold piece and the conductor with the nickels was enacted on the Telegraph Avenue cars last week.

She came around the corner on a little waddling run, much after the fashion of an excited goose, and waved her parasol at the approaching car, which slowed down for her. It started up rather suddenly and she seated herself, not altogether willingly with a resounding thump, which caused the other occupants to wonder if anything had broken. Then began a plunging search of the little bodied purse, and a final delivery of the gold piece to the patient conductor, accompanied by a deprecating smile, and the inquiry:

"I don't suppose you've any change?"
"Oh, yes, I have ma'am," was the cheerful reply. Whereupon he deliberately counted out handful after handful of five-cent pieces, until the lady was obliged to call her handkerchief into requisition.

Speaking of conductors calls to mind an experience with a San Francisco specimen. He was from the mountains evidently. Keen-eyed, bright, bronzed-cheeked and overwhelmingly polite.

"Where shall I get off at to be nearest the one hundred block on Buchanan street?" inquired the lady.

The conductor, all interest, leaned toward her. "Well," with thoughtful deliberation "I wouldn't swear as to whether that street was numbered from this end," indicating by a nod the south, "or from this end," another nod indicated the northern portion of San Francisco.

Two well-known ladies met each other on Broadway the other day and stopped to chat a bit.

"I'm going to leave town tomorrow for the summer," announced one, "and I'm going about settling bills. I've got my valuables in here, too. They're to be put in the safe deposit."

"Well, isn't that funny?" confided her companion, in tones heard of the pedestrian. "I've got two hundred dollars in here to pay bills with today." As she spoke she waved a little leather handbag in the air, and looked at the more capacious satchel in the hand of her friend.

"Do you know," the other laughed as she spoke, "I've always thought what fools women were to carry valuables and money around like this. Wouldn't we be fair game for a footpad, though?"

Would they indeed? The lack of prudence exhibited by otherwise sensible women is sometimes astonishing. It is a wonder that more robberies are not committed, instead of less, so openly is temptation displayed in the form of valuable jewelry and sums of money.

About six o'clock on Monday afternoon travelers on Broadway were shocked by the sight of a badly intoxicated youth in his early teens staggering along the thoroughfare.

Passersby commented on the boy's condition and expressed wonderment as to how he came in such plight.

The initiated know, however, that there are several saloons in Oakland much patronized by callow young men. They know, also, that this patronage is winked at by the powers that be, although selling liquor to minors is an offense against the law and morality.

Oakland is becoming a popular resort for artists. At some time in the not distant future Mr. Neilson, together with his friends, Rollins and Martinez, are to give a joint exhibition of their work in the rooms of the Nile Club. It is the intention to open the club rooms to ladies on that occasion, which will be the first time in the history of that organization.

Mr. Rollins' exhibition at the P. L. P.'s was so eminently satisfactory as to be encouraging to others, and to remove in a degree the stigma attached to Oakland from an artistic standpoint. To the Starr King Fraternity belongs the honor of the entering wedge along this line, and the future glows with promise.

Miss Wisbea, of Ye Liberty staff, is turning her attention to miniature work during spare moments, and her latest shows the well-known features of Jack London, idealized and somewhat softened in outline.

Among the Oakland writers Mr. Wm. Compton won a prize for his paper read at the bankers' convention here recently, and had bestowed upon him the honor of being elected a representative at the next convention to be held in Minneapolis. The appointment is a good one. Mr. Compton has for many years occupied positions of trust in the Crocker-Woolworth Bank. Besides writing articles which meet the approval of staid banking men, Mr. Compton does acceptable short stories during his leisure hours.

Miss Knox entertained some of the High School graduates at a dancing party given at her home last Wednesday night. About twenty-four guests were present, only those having taken part in the curtain-raiser and play having been invited.

WHY THE RELIANCE CLUB WAS SUED.

One Member of the Board of Directors Refused to Sign Renewal of Note.

Suits were begun by the Central Bank yesterday to recover $8000 on a loan to the Reliance Club and its directors on June 8, 1901. One suit is against the club for $3000 secured by a chattel mortgage on furniture. The other suit is against the directors of the club on their personal notes for $5000. The defendants are G. R. Lukens, M. W. Jelliff, C. M. Davis, R. M. Fitzgerald, J. M. Jelliff, Pelton Taylor and P. J. Cadogan.

These suits do not indicate that the club is going to pieces. It was necessary for the bank to bring suit in order to save its rights and prevent the notes from becoming outlawed.

A few days ago the gentlemen who are on the notes were notified that they were due, and all of them were asked to renew their signatures on the documents. Several of them agreed to do this, but there was one on the list who said he did not care to sign again.

The other members thereupon did not want to assume the entire responsibility, so they suggested that the bank bring suit at once in order that all of the gentlemen would be held equally responsible.

M. Fitzgerald, who for seven years has been backing the club financially, has always been ready to donate his share of the note. He is ready to pay his share of the note at any time, but he does not feel that he can longer finance the club or give it as much time as he has in years past.

His physician recently told him that he was overworked and that he would surely have a nervous collapse if he did not give up outside matters and attend only to his law business. Because of this advice Mr. Fitzgerald is anxious to retire from outside matters. That is why he wanted to retire as a director.

He is compelled to give up his active interest in the Reliance Club and other institutions, so that he can devote all his time to his law practice. The Reliance Club, however, will be paid, as a proposition is on hand to secure a new loan, and with this money the old notes will be taken up. The Reliance Club now has a large membership and is in a fair condition.

SCHOOL GIVES KANSAS OFFICIALS VISIT

PUPILS OF INSTITUTION FOR DEAF AND BLIND ENTERTAIN.

BERKELEY, June 10.—In the auditorium of the California Institution for the Deaf and the Blind last night the blind pupils gave their annual concert. The program was quite extensive but the numbers all proved interesting, especially because of the difficulties under which the pupils worked.

This is the annual concert given each year shortly before the graduating exercises of the school. As usual the concert was well attended, many coming from San Francisco and all more from Oakland and Alameda. Otto Fleischer, director of music at the institution, and Miss Bertha Butler, vocal instructor, had charge of the preparation of the program, and to them is to be ascribed a great part of its success. The program was as follows:

Part I—Chorus (a) "Ding Dong" (Richard Hoffmann), (b) "Fiddle Dee Dee" words by Eugene Field (Reginald De Koven) primary class, organ solo, "Bell Rondo" (G. Morandi), arranged by W. T. East, (c) "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here" (Theodore Laek), Alfred Kloss vocal solo, Three Green Bonnets (Guy d'Harcourt), Marie Rula, piano solo, "Soree de Vienna," No. 6 (Schubert-Liszt), Hazel Piper, vocal solo, "Amorita" (Guy d'Harcourt), Laura Barbee, piano solo, "Polonaise in E Major" (Franz Schuber), Charles Caeceres, piano quartet, "Marche Militaire" (Franz Schuber), Andrew Castrol, Everett Deckard, Leland Harland, George Hammers.

Part II—Vocal quartet "Selah Folk Song" (G. Pergolesi), Caroline Cabrilles, Maud Hilton, Marie Ruiz, Laura Barbee, piano solo, "Impromptu in E Flat Minor" Op. 28 No. 1 (Hugo Reinhold) Barne Haght, organ solo, "Grand Fantasia" Op. 116, No. 3 (Homer N. Bartlett), Hazel Piper vocal solo "Love the Peddler" (Edward Gorman) Cabrilles, Maud Hilton, Marie Ruiz, Laura Barbee, piano solo, "Taratantara," No. 3 (Walter MacFarlane), Valentine Miller organ solo "Toccata" from Fifth Symphony (Charles Marie Vidor) Charles Caeceres chorus "My Heart in the Highlands" (Slesian air), arranged by Otto Fleischer.

OAKLAND'S HANDSOMEST CIGAR STORE OPENED ITS DOORS THIS MORNING.

Those passing Eleventh and Washington streets today were attracted to the southeast corner by the handsome appearance of the beautiful cigar store that opened its doors for business this morning by the B. Berovich Cigar Company—the same gentlemen that conduct the popular cigar store at Twelfth street. This place of business is a model of beauty, but the new store opened today surpasses it in appointment and attraction. It is one of the prettiest and best arranged places of its kind on the coast, and by long odds the most palatial in the vicinity and is certainly a credit to any city and one Oakland may well feel proud to have in its midst. The entire day, it has been the center of attraction and tonight when illuminated will be a sight worth while going a long way to see. As the store undoubtedly many hundreds of people will take advantage of the same to visit Mr. Berovich's new cigar palace. Handsome souvenirs are being distributed by the company to its patrons and friends today and it will continue this evening.

It is the intention of Mr. Berovich at all times to give special cigar values and extra inducements to tobacco smokers who bestow their patronage with this firm. As of the leading brands of foreign and domestic makes will be kept in stock, also a full and exclusive invoice of smokers' articles. Mr. Berovich will make a feature of the celebrated "Jonquin" cigar, which is especially made for him at Tampa, Florida, of the pure, high grade Havana tobacco which are sold at 12 1/2c and 25c each, and are a favorite with all good judges of tobacco who smoke them.

WOMAN SAVED FROM DEATH

Mrs. Katherine Ryan was saved from death under the wheels of the Seventh street local yesterday afternoon only by the presence of mind and prompt action of Policeman Brown. Mrs. Ryan had fallen across the track at Seventh and Washington streets just as the 4:15 train from San Francisco was coming into the station. Policeman Brown saw her danger and immediately ran to her assistance, and succeeded in taking her from the track just as the engine passed. It happened that the train, at the time, was running slow or else the woman would have been killed.

A short time ago the home of Mrs. Ryan was burned down and since then her mind has been deranged. She was taken to the Receiving Hospital.

BERKELEY CLUBS HOLD MEETING

BERKELEY, June 10.—The joint conference of representatives of all the eight improvement clubs of Berkeley was held last night in the office of R. A. Perry on Center street. About thirty prominent men from all sections of the town, were present. The committee has met before and after the annual meeting of the clubs regarding features of the proposed club house, but last night's meeting was intended to elect a permanent organization.

It was decided to have standing committees on matters where the clubs' lighting and bond matters. Instead of improvement club acting independently on matters where the joint conference action is desired the Board of Trustees' committee will act for all the clubs. The committee will have Victor Robertson for its chairman.

A lengthy report regarding a water supply for Berkeley was read last night by an engineer who had been asked to prepare such a report. No action upon it was taken.

WILL EXHIBIT WORKS OF ART

There is to be an exhibition of paintings given at the Nile Club rooms at 1107 Broadway by artist members of the club, including works of Xavier Mrazines, W. E. Rollins and C. F. Neilson. The paintings will be on exhibition for one week and can be inspected by lady visitors Wednesday evening next, the opening night, and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons.

This is to be the first of an annual series of exhibitions and the club members are leaving nothing undone to make this first exhibit a great success. The Egyptian room, it is believed, will set off and heighten the effect of the paintings, and a sufficient number have been received to make the collection an interesting one.

J. J. BURKE HAS GONE TO RAYMOND

J. J. Burke left this morning for Raymond for the purpose of taking depositions of twelve witnesses in the case of Wilson vs. Wilson, now pending in the Alameda county court. Plaintiff in this action was a former resident of Raymond.

Acquittal of Maestretti Will Help Mayor Schmitz

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—The acquittal of Frank A. Maestretti, president of the Board of Public Works, is the greatest victory Mayor Schmitz has thus far achieved over his hired enemies. Incidentally it insures his re-election.

The conviction of Maestretti on the charge of subornation of perjury on which he was tried would have been the most flagrant travesty on justice that has thus far been enacted in our courts.

In this particular case neither the guilt nor the innocence of the accused was for a moment seriously taken into consideration. The prosecutor had but one end in view and that was the conviction of Maestretti for political purposes only. They felt certain that if the president of the Works Board went to jail the downfall of the Schmitz administration would be accomplished at the November election.

Nothing was spared to secure Maestretti's conviction. Perjury of the rankest type was winked at and all sorts of illegitimate means resorted to in an effort to enlist public sentiment against the accused.

I said before that in this particular case neither the guilt nor the innocence of the accused cut any figure. The prosecution's attitude was: "Let nothing be spared to secure Maestretti's conviction. If we can send him to jail we will surely accomplish the ruin of Schmitz. If it is necessary to purchase perjured testimony let us buy it. If it is necessary for us to pack the jury let it be packed. This is the one case that has come to our notice in which the end justifies the means."

To the Grand Jury, which is nothing more nor less than a machine engaged in the elevation of Fairfax H. Wheelan's political aspirations, was entrusted the gathering of evidence with which to send Maestretti to the rock pile or the jute mill. With the aid of a bunch of private detectives, none of whose words would be seriously considered by an honest judge, Foreman T. P. Andrews managed to get a helpless drunkard named Podd, a half witted person named Silberstein and a notoriety seeker named Merrill to agree to take the witness stand and swear away the liberty of Maestretti.

Now that the jury has acquitted Maestretti and branded the tales of Merrill, Podd and Silberstein as perjury, the administration has more supporters than ever. The persistent persecution of Schmitz and his friends has reacted in the Mayor's favor and today, after a campaign of lies and filth, he stands bigger and better in the eyes of the community than ever.

Maestretti's prosecution cannot claim ignorance of the nature of their witnesses. The whole town for a week has rung with the liquor leanings of Podd and the mental meanderings of Silberstein. Merrill, the mouther, has been the butt of his companions bar-room jokes. So there is no chance for a defense of deception. They knew all about the tales these unworthies had to tell and in the face of this knowledge they were willing to send Maestretti to jail if the jury would believe the testimony. But in this effort to railroad a man to jail for political revenue only some one doctored the switch and for once Justice has been righteously served. Maestretti is free and his persecutors and prosecutors are at bay. Incidentally Schmitz' re-election is an established fact.

I am told that the Western Pacific Railroad, which is now a certainty, is going to actively participate in State politics. The fighting ground will be the State capital. Bert Worthington is to have charge of the political bureau of the rival road. The endeavor will be to not only secure legislation favorable to the Western Pacific, but also to prevent the passage of laws that may in any way hamper its plans. For several years past the Harriman road has had things pretty much its own way at Sacramento without any particular expenditure of money. Under the new arrangement things may be different. Bert Worthington is one of the most capable men in California when it comes to handling State politics. He is bright, clever, shrewd and above all a man of his word.

There is a deal of preliminary slobbering over the coming of William Winter, the late Augustine Daly's private dramatic critic, Mr. Winter is to deliver a lecture on the drama here. There can be no doubt but Mr. Winter is very well equipped to talk entertainingly and instructively on certain phases of this interesting subject, but as his ideals and sympathies are confined exclusively to the past he has little or no light to throw upon the great theatric movements of today.

Winter belongs exclusively to the Old School. For years he has simply been a memory. Since the passing of Edwin Booth and Augustine Daly he has seen nothing but gloom for the future of the drama. As dramatic critic for the New York Tribune, a paper with less than 25,000 circulation, he has wielded no influence in the theatrical world of the metropolis. E. H. Sothern recently accused him of writing criticisms of notable productions without ever having witnessed the performance. Sothern also accused him of undue bias against all stars who refused to give his son a job. His son is an actor. William Winter is simply an entertaining writer. He worshiped in type Edwin Booth, Joseph Jefferson, Ada Rehan and their set but never dared to criticize them. During Daly's life time he raved over the genius of Ada Rehan. Since Daly's death Miss Rehan has been a dismal failure. Winter treated Sothern's Hamlet as a trivial affair—a most unjust piece of work. He also has practically overlooked the great work of Forbes Robertson. Now a month or so ago Robertson gave his Hamlet in New York and many of the oldest and most intelligent playgoers of the metropolis branded the performance as the greatest ever seen on this side of the Atlantic. I don't think Winter ever discovered anyone. Now-a-days the Reviewer with the Columbus faculty is the thing. So taking it all in all the coming of William Winter is no great thing save to people who want social recognition in New York.

The joke and the joy are on Bert Igoe, the caricaturist who was married Wednesday night in St. Agnes Church. The little picture-maker made all arrangements to have his wedding a secret. No one but the members of his immediate family knew anything about the when or the where.

During a spell of temporary mental aberration Igoe confessed to one of his brother artists that he would be married Wednesday night at St. Agnes Church. Now, that was all that Dan Sweeney, who works with Igoe, wanted. Sweeney is an extremely religious young man. Nevertheless he has the sense of humor that naturally goes with his name. So when he learned the time and place of the Igoe nuptials he got busy mentally and physically.

Up to a few years ago Sweeney was an altar boy in the Cathedral at Sacramento, and is still eligible to perform the duties of that office. So he went to see the pastor of Igoe's parish, of which he is also a member, and requested that he be permitted to assist as an altar boy at the marriage ceremony. The good priest readily agreed, so when Igoe and his bride marched up the center aisle of the church to the altar rail, both were confident that no one save blood relatives were in the church to witness the proceedings.

As they stood there before the altar the door of the sanctuary opened and out walked the priest. Just behind him came Sweeney arrayed in soutan and surplice swinging the incense burner.

The extreme solemnity of his features was appropriate to the occasion; but when his eyes met the eyes of Igoe, there came near being no wedding. It took all the little caricaturist's grit to place the ring on the bride's finger and all his strength to recover his exclusive tenor voice in order to answer the necessary questions that made him his lady's slave for life.

Sweeney will go into hiding just as Igoe returns from his honeymoon.

The Koshland Tough Party is the Talk of the Town

The fact that only a very few people on this side of the bay ever heard of the Koshlands, goes to show the remarkable manner in which San Francisco has grown during the past couple of years. The Koshlands are multi-millionaires; yet practically no one outside of the exclusive Jewish set and a few downtown business men, have ever heard of them. Their names do not appear in the society columns of the daily newspapers, and the first time they were ever mentioned in type—and then not by name—was in last week's Town Talk. And then the chances are that they would not have been exploited in print were it not for the fact that some of the details of their remarkable tough party leaked out.

The Koshlands have one of the most magnificent homes in San Francisco. It is listed on a par with Claus Spreckels' mansion and the palace of the Irwins. The gorgeous entrance is of the finest Carara marble and has no equal in California. It is a duplication of the entrance to one of the most gorgeous palaces in Italy. Five years ago this house would have been mentioned as frequently as the City Hall. But now so numerous have palatial residences become over here that it would require a home of amber or jade to create any great amount of discussion in the public prints.

I remember at the time of the scandal following the Seeley dinner in New York, President Roosevelt, then a Police Commissioner of the metropolis, remarked that he had never heard of the Seeleys. This remark of Teddy's was the subject of a number of editorials printed throughout the East commenting upon the obscurity of millionaires in New York. It was figured that the Chairman of the Board of Police Commissioners should at least have heard of every millionaire on the little old Island of Manhattan. And speculation ran rife as to whether millionaires were so numerous in New York that no individual had even a thinking acquaintance with them all.

And now out here in San Francisco people able to own and maintain a modern palace are so numerous that even the heads of newspapers have never heard of half of them. But now that the details of the tough party given by Mrs. Cora Koshland have leaked out, that family, you may be sure, will hereafter remain well in the public eye and on the tip of the public tongue. There never was such an entertainment given in California as the Koshland tough party. The dining-room was arranged to represent a Pacific street dive. The servants were disguised as tough waiters. So tough were the servants asked to appear, that two of them refused to assume the role and gave up their jobs. Steam beer was the beverage. The soup was served in unique jars, and a large syringe accompanied each jar.

So sensational was the manner of serving the soup that Dr. Hershstein was so shocked that he was forced to quit the party at an unusually early hour.

The fun was hilarious from the start. Mrs. Koshland assumed the role of a wealthy woman with a large family of daughters on a slumming tour. Down the back of one of these daughters a gentleman poured a bottle of beer. This created considerable merriment; but the real joy only began when the dainty matrons swung in the rhythm of a cakewalk, the music being furnished by two colored gentlemen from a downtown resort.

Later in the evening a bona fide police patrol wagon secured, I am told, through the influence of Louis Haas of Lilienthal & Company, wheeled up to the Koshland home and made a fake raid on the joint.

All of the guests were married save one. He is a well-known bachelor that has figured in the affairs of the Concordian Club for a long time. Those of the Koshland set who were not invited are loud and intense in their criticisms of the party. But the participants content themselves by telling outsiders that it was simply a wonder.

However, it is safe to predict that an affair of this kind will never be again attempted in San Francisco.

EQUITABLE LIFE GETS MORTON

RECENT CABINET OFFICER ELECTED PRESIDENT OF INSURANCE COMPANY.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A letter has been sent to Thomas F. Ryan by George Westinghouse, of Pittsburg, accepting membership in the board of trustees of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. Mr. Westinghouse is now in this city, he and Paul Morton being guests of the same hotel in Fifth avenue. After the directors had finished their work by selecting Mr. Morton chairman, Roger Winthrop, financial manager of the society, tendered his resignation. It was explained that he did this as a courtesy to Mr. Morton, that the new chairman might not be embarrassed in any way in the plans that he had for the reorganization of the society.

While the result of the directors' meeting was widely discussed in the evening wherever men of finance gathered, few of those directly interested cared to say much for publication. In the evening, Mr. Morton attended the Pilgrim's Club dinner to former Ambassador Joseph Choate and was the recipient of many congratulations over his new position.

"When will you take charge of Equitable affairs?" he was asked. As soon as I can be relieved of my duties in Washington. My resignation goes into effect on July 1st, but I expect from this time on to pay more or less attention to Equitable affairs. I was here to look after the other office for which I have been chosen by the Metropolitan Subway syndicate. But any connection with that is now out of the question. I do not know who will be put in that place."

Charles Stewart, an anti-Hyde director of the Equitable, who also attended the dinner, denied that he opposed in any way the election of Mr. Morton as had been stated.

"I am perfectly satisfied with the result of the meeting," said he. "We have done everything required of us and more. We have complied with everything that public opinion has demanded, and rightly demanded. This action means mutualization. It matters not who has control of the stock, mutualization must come, and the board is pledged to see that it is carried out unless the court interferes, and I do not imagine that anything of the kind will occur."

"I have had a talk with Mr. Morton concerning the resignations that have been placed in his hands. I have advised him strongly not to accept them all. When a man starts out to run an establishment he cannot afford to throw out all the old servants who know how the place ought to be run. Mr. Morton will be compelled to surround himself with men who are conversant with the details and I believe he will keep at least some of those who have resigned in the service of the society."

NARROW ESCAPE.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Thirty-five persons living in a West Thirty-ninth street house which has been remodeled into apartments had a narrow escape early today from death by fire and smoke. One woman was so badly hurt that she may die and several policemen were injured.

The firemen and policemen carried out at least a score of tenants many of whom were women. Others fled to safety by way of the roof. Mrs.

Margaret Donovan, aroused from her sleep by the alarm, fainted and fell where she escaped the notice of the rescuers. She lay on the floor nearly an hour and when discovered was almost dead from inhaling smoke. The financial loss was small.

THIS HOTEL WILL COST MILLIONS

NEW YORK, June 10.—Where the Plaza Hotel now stands at Fifty-ninth street and Fifth avenue, overlooking the southern end of Central Park, it has been planned to erect within the next year a hotel which will rival any similar structure in the world. Fifteen stories high and having nearly 1000 rooms, it will be built at a cost of about $15,000,000. The projectors expect to have their hostelry ready for business a year from next autumn. It was at first planned merely to remodel the structure as it stands today and erect an addition at a cost of about $2,000,000, but the men who are to manage the hotel have prevailed on the owners of the property to raise the whole building.

In every respect it is planned to have the new hotel a model. Its ballroom and cafes will be modelled after the famous hotels of Europe, the entire inner court being taken up with one large dining room, other smaller dining rooms extending along the side.

The old Plaza will be closed tonight and many families who have resided there a score of years will be compelled to seek new quarters. When the furnishings have been auctioned off the building will be demolished.

YOUNG COUPLE SUICIDE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 10.—Mabel Gates, aged 18 years and George Job Jr., were found in a dying condition from the effects of strychnine poisoning on Kansas avenue in Rosedale, Kansas, at 1 o'clock this morning, and both died before medical aid could be administered. They both protested when an effort was made to save them and it is supposed that they voluntarily took the poison, having made a mutual agreement to commit suicide. The young couple had been sweethearts for several months.

Only fool men ask women to help them make their marks.

THE MEDDLER

A WEEK OF WEDDINGS.

No matter how fashionable the Easter, or the winter wedding may be, June holds an undiminished popularity as the month par excellence of weddings. It seems so odd, too, for so many people are out of town in this pleasantest of summer months, and it is not the ideal time to go south on a wedding journey, and it is south that most of the brides and bridegrooms of Central California turn their faces. Still, June is the most popular of all the months. This week alone there have been three weddings of importance to us, and several others of interest across the bay, while cards are out for the marriage of Miss Cornelia Gordon and Isaac Upham—young Isaac Upham, who was a little boy when the Uphams lived here and Mrs. Upham disputed with Mrs. Wheaton the title to "the prettiest woman in Oakland." Miss Gordon is said to be a charming girl. Her father is General Gordon, and she has many friends in Washington, where her girlhood has been passed. Mrs. Dennis Searles is to be matron of honor, and gives a tea tomorrow at her Piedmont home in honor of the bride-elect. It will be the first opportunity most of us have had to meet Miss Gordon. The bride's brother lives in San Francisco, and it seemed to be best to have the wedding ceremony performed here. It is to be a church wedding at Trinity. I always think it must be trying for a girl to be married away from home, instead of in the midst of her acquaintances, and so, I trust we shall extend a cordial welcome to the girl who is about to take up the most important part of her life amongst us.

THE CLUFF-BREUNER WEDDING.

The event of the week across the bay was the wedding of Miss California Cluff, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cluff, and Mr. John Breuner, which took place at the Cluff's handsome apartments in the Palace Hotel on Wednesday evening. The invitation list was confined to the relatives of the two families, so no announcement was made beforehand, thus proving that any number of women can keep a secret when they wish to give society a surprise.

The Cluff rooms are dark red in tone, so that the decorations took the form of red Rambler roses and green vines, which covered the walls, making a perfect bowler of the large reception room, where the ceremony was performed, and forming a most striking background for the graceful bride in her trailing robes of white.

The wedding gown was as beautiful as those worn by Mrs. Downing and Mrs. Wilson, when the two elder daughters of the family were brides.

Miss California had chosen white satin for her wedding gown and over it was point lace applique and most beautifully wrought.

The veil was sheer and white, and lilacs of the valley were carried. Mrs. Breuner is a beautiful young woman, barely turned eighteen, and strongly resembling her sister, Mrs. Jack Wilson, who is probably the handsomest young matron in San Francisco society.

The only attendant was Miss Florence Cluff, a sweet girl of fifteen or so, the only unmarried daughter of the family now. Miss Florence Cluff wore a gown in pink and white effects.

The wedding presents were gorgeous, including a chest of silver, a silver tea and coffee set, a grand piano and several other large and beautiful gifts, besides the infinitude of small ones. The groom's gift was a bow-knot of large diamonds, with two pendant pear-shaped pearls.

Mr. and Mrs. Breuner have gone to Del Monte and from there will tour southward in their splendid big automobile. They will spend two or three weeks in Los Angeles, and on their return will go east for a month's stay. On their return they will reside permanently at the Palace Hotel, where a suite of rooms is being fitted up for them.

Mr. Breuner is a most fortunate fellow to have won this beautiful young girl, and the friends of the Cluffs are also congratulating the bride.

Mr. Breuner is a rich and generous man. He has just fulfilled his promise to the California Club, and has presented them with a thousand dollars' worth of furniture for their new club house. The fact that the club bore the name of his bride did not make him less happy in his handsome gift.

MISS ANDRUSS' WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Julia Andrus to Mr. Nelson Towne Shaw, the son of Mrs. Clifton Worden, was a very quiet affair, but a singularly pretty one. The bride is a stunning girl, who dresses well and has a beautiful figure, to say nothing of wonderful red hair. She made a glorious bride. One of the prettiest brides of the wedding was the presence of the four little granddaughters of Mrs. and the late Isaac Requa. These four little girls, each with a most attractive and distinct personality, the Misses Amy and Sallie Long, and the Misses Amy and Alice Requa, wore pretty frocks of pink and white and carried big baskets of pink roses, which they scattered before the bride. The Requas and the Townes have always been the closest friends, and I am sure it would have pleased Mr. Requa and Mr. Towne greatly could they have known that the four little granddaughters of the one had assisted at the marriage of the only grandchild of the other.

The ceremony was almost a private one, but beautiful and elaborate none the less, and the presents were sumptuous.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw left at once for Salem, Oregon, where their home will be made for two or three years, at least, when they hope to return to San Francisco.

YOUTH OF THESE BRIDES.

I suppose everyone has noticed the youth of the present batch of brides. Almost every girl who has been married this spring and summer has been in her early twenties, and some of them were not even out of their teens. In many cases the bridegrooms also were exceedingly young and boyish, and seemed over young to take upon themselves the cares and support of a family. There is certainly a reaction in favor of early marriages—I wonder if Roosevelt, with his endless preaching of the strenuous life, the simple life, and the stork life has anything to do with it? Certainly, if one intends to raise a large family of children, youthful marriages are the thing. In the old days children themselves married—girls of seventeen with boys of twenty—and raised children before they, themselves, were out of the bread and butter age. We thought we had outgrown that once, but we seem to be verging back into it, though perhaps the young people are better developed now, mentally, than they were in the old days. It remains a problem which marriages are the happier, those that are contracted in youth, love growing to be a habit, or those that are the result of mature judgment and choice. When all has been said and done, the wisest judges will probably conclude that age has not much to do with it. Marriage will be a lottery to the end, and it is not so much that some draw prizes and some blanks, as it is that what is one woman's blank is another's prize, and vice versa. I think we all would do well if we only had the right mate.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crocker have lent some of her finest pictures, among them a couple of Miller's—the famous Man With the Hoe is one of them—and many other private owners have contributed pictures to the loan collection. Mrs. Crocker has just returned from a three weeks' trip to Boston, whither she went to make preparations for the entrance of her older son to Groton, where he has been registered for several years. Groton is where President Roosevelt's boys were prepared for college. It is a preparatory school for Yale, and the number of boys received is limited. Young Willie Crocker has already passed the entrance examinations. Mrs. Crocker has returned to Burlingame for the rest of the summer.

Mrs. Eleanor Martin and her son, Walter, are two of those who have already gone to Portland, partly on business and partly on pleasure. They will be away for a fortnight or more.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Deering are going to Portland the latter part of June. After a week at the Fair and a week or ten days in the Yellowstone they will return to the McCloud river, where they will be the guests of the Arthur Whitneys of San Mateo for another week. Little Miss Deering and her nurse will spend a month in Oakland.

The Arthur Whitneys, who are related to the Palmers, own a picturesque log house on the McCloud, and spend three months there fishing and hunting every summer. Their three hundred acres are located very near the Charles Wheeler place at The Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Whitney are at present entertaining the Fritz Kings of San Mateo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Scott leave this week for a fortnight at Portland. Upon their return they will probably open their camp as usual on the Russian river.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosenfeld and Miss Carrie Nicholson leave in July for the Potter in Santa Barbara, where some weeks will be spent.

Mr. and Mrs. William Watt are going to spend July in the Yosemite.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Forbes (Miss May Vrooman) have left for six months in the mountains. Mr. Forbes is not well.

Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Colby (Miss Rachel Vrooman) will accompany the Sierra Club to the North, where Mount Rainier is to be climbed this summer. Mr. Colby is the secretary of the club.

On account of the interest in Portland many society folk are going to the Sound, Victoria, and Banff this year. Yellowstone Park will be more popular than ever before and the Canadian Railway east through the Rockies.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixwell Hewitt are going north to Canadian points and the Yellowstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chancellor are going to Portland and the Yellowstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clarence Breen and Miss Sara Drum were among those staying at the Country Club House on the McCloud river when it burned last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Dutton have gone to visit Mr. Dutton's aunt in Seattle. They will spend some time there. They have taken their automobile with them.

McCray's, near Cloverdale, will be popular with many Oaklanders, and quite a number, including Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Morse, will spend the summer there.

Miss Maude Edith Pope will visit Santa Barbara this summer.

LUNCHEON

TO MRS. WEILL

The Misses Carrie and Belle Nicholson gave a luncheon last week in honor of Mrs. Weill, the sister-in-law of Mrs. Henry Rosenfeld, who is a guest at the Palace Hotel. A dozen guests enjoyed a dainty menu. Last Monday Mrs. Rosenfeld was at home to a host of callers, who came to pay their hospitality calls in appreciation of Mrs. Rosenfeld's several delightful entertainments of the winter. Afterward many of the guests went to the Palace to call on Mrs. Weill.

WANTED—A LEADER.

Wanted—A leader! This time it is a "social leader"—the social leader for whom we sigh at intervals.

Of course, there is the old familiar tale of our childhood, of the frogs who wanted a king. So Jupiter sent them a log. But King Log was too stupid; so they once more appealed to Jupiter. And then he sent them a stork. And King Stork ate up all the poor frogs, before he had been many days a ruler in his kingdom.

Perhaps that might happen to us. We might get a social leader so stupid in many ways that she might be trying on our nerves.

Or, perhaps she might be like King Stork—some people might be snapped up—disappearing from the social world.

But all the same, some of the young girls are sighing for a social leader, and no one seems to be aspiring to the position.

Now, of course, no one has a word to say against the good patronesses, who for these many seasons have provided over the destinies of the Friday night and Maple Clubs. Hard have they toiled, long have they labored over the social vicissitudes of these same clubs. Many a long hour have they sat against the wall, while the young people have danced away the hours, these same people often forgetting to exchange greetings with them.

Many a time have they endured downright impertinence from the young man, asked to dance with some girl to whom Fate has not been very kind.

They have even braved the "greeting room door, from which issued a volume of cigarette smoke, enough to choke any average mortal, in their vain efforts to induce the young men to remember social courtesies.

And their kind hearts have ached for the girl left without her supper dance, and they have tried to take her in with them. And they have felt grieved at the girl who has run away and shut herself up in the dressing room, that her partnerless state may not be evident to the whole world. And they have had sincere pity for the girl who has burst into tears of disappointment as she has sat out one dance after another.

All this and very much more might be written about the patronesses of the Friday Night Club. Truly, they have served their country well, heroines in their day and generation.

But all this is not enough. It is a sort of a neutral attitude, a negative, long suffering condition. It is not enough. There ought to be some one of assured power, ready in one way to make an aggressive campaign. If the young man who was rude to a patroness when she asked him to dance with a young girl, was simply cut off from the list, it would be a saving lesson for others.

One has a right to expect true courtesy from a gentleman. And only gentlemen are good enough to associate with the American girl, who has been carefully brought up in the heart of an American home.

It is not a pretty picture to contemplate—the sweet American girl, daintily bred, dancing with some fellow who must smoke vile cigarettes between acts. The social world would be very much improved by dropping his name from the list. It doesn't matter if his father may happen to have a few dollars. It is the man himself that matters.

MRS. J. J. CRACKNELL

that it contains too many names of college men. Many of the students who were left off the graduating list were on too many dancing lists last season.

Of course, if you dance your way through college you are not likely to make much of a showing on graduation day.

College men are not yet at work in the world—they are dependent on the home people for the money they spend, and a social career while they are studying is not usually down in the list of expenditures made out for the average student.

The college man is available to fill in lancers, of course, and to increase the list of men, but he ought not to make up quite the main part of any list.

Many from the Army and Navy can always be had, and as many of them have traveled far, they are very interesting. But best of all, is the young man who has learned to work. If he can take his place in the world's big struggle, no matter, if it is only in a small way, he is the young man one wants to know. The young man who can honestly earn the money that he spends is the best type of the American young man. He is the man who ought more often to appear on our dancing lists.

Perhaps he does not care much about the honor, but on the whole I am inclined to think he does. And once again, I echo the wish I heard expressed by some prominent young girls the other day—the wish for a social leader.

THE SOCIAL DON'TS.

I could find it in my heart to wish that some one would write a book of social "don'ts" for the benefit of some of our young girls. And the first big "don't" I would write would be "don't boast." One grows so deadly tired of the girl who boasts. In the main, we know all about each other, so what is the use of our trying to deceive each other? The young girl who boasts is such an impossible creature—so uninteresting, such a social bore that one gets away as soon as an avenue of escape is open.

One would like to say to certain young girls: "Don't boast about your clothes. We can see them for ourselves—and then, nearly everybody has clothes. Don't boast of your blue blood, it ought to speak for itself in a dainty courtesy for others. Besides there are other things quite as desirable as 'family,' a good heart and intellectual attainments, for instance. Don't boast of anything you may have; because other people have some of that very same thing." A prominent woman remarked the other day, "I just cannot stand for the boasting of those people. They, either 'rile' my spirit, so I boast back at them, and then, of course, I despise myself, or I just get so furiously angry that my peace of mind is seriously disturbed." And that is just the attitude most people have.

And there have been weddings in our city where people were invited who were new friends, and asked simply for the social position they might be supposed to hold. At the Chase home, Mr. and Mrs. Q. A. Chase met their old friends, and to each was extended the warm personal welcome which has always been characteristic of the Chase household.

There has never been a wedding at which the guests have had so good a time. For old friends of the family met, probably not having seen each other for months. The wedding list included the friends who have known the bride all her life, and it was a beautiful picture to see their enthusiasm for her, and the good wishes for her happiness which you felt were sincere.

There was a true friendliness in the air for this happy young bride and groom, and one felt that it was all truly deserved.

The decorations of the home were some, and that is just the last thing the smart set of today is prepared to stand. If you want to be popular, and want to have friends, never breathe a word of any good gift Fate may send you. We find each other out in the long run, and it isn't altogether a matter of words.

WEDDING OF HELEN CHASE.

One of the most truly interesting weddings of the entire winter was that of Miss Helen Eunice Chase and Mr. Traylor Bell, which took place on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride on Webster street.

Miss Helen Chase has always been a popular girl, with a sunny disposition and an optimistic outlook on life that is charming. Few girls have had so good an education, for Miss Chase has spent a great deal of time in the East, and the family has been abroad. Miss Chase has also been to the Orient, but the wider horizons have never spoiled her. She always comes back with the genuine enthusiasm for home and friends which marks the greatness of true simplicity.

Mr. Traylor Bell was one of the most popular young men at the University. He belonged to the leading fraternity there, and was one of the bright members of the Skull and Keys. He is one of the notable graduates of the Hastings Law School, and is practicing his profession with his father.

So, of course, from many points of view, this wedding was one of the most interesting of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Q. A. Chase spared no detail that could make the wedding a happy occasion for the bride and groom.

The whole house presented a beautiful picture, full of light, and lovely wedding decorations. Usually when one goes to a wedding, one sees none of the family. You are told possibly to go up stairs, and you find your way, seeing the family only after the ceremony.

And there have been weddings in our city where people were invited who were new friends, and asked simply for the social position they might be supposed to hold. At the Chase home, Mr. and Mrs. Q. A. The decorations of the home were very unusual, and yet were all in wedding effects. The keynote of the decorations was the Bermuda Lily, and quantities of these beautiful ascension lilies were used. The wedding bower was fashioned entirely of Ascension lilies, and it was most artistic. The large drawing room of the Chase home is in colonial style, and its fine effect was increased by the decorations, which were worked out in wreaths, and true lovers' knots. The whole effect was very bride-like, artistic, and charming.

Supper for the two hundred invited guests was served in a large marquee, which was connected with the house.

It was the most elaborately planned marquee ever seen on this side of the bay. Usually the marquee is more or less of a failure, for we have not the climate best suitable for out door effects.

But the night was charming, and the marquee was immensely picturesque. The sides were completely hidden with masses of bamboo, and gorgeous baskets were suspended overhead, and the whole marquee was brilliant with electric lights.

An elaborate supper was served by Hallahan, and the sight of the two hundred guests seated about this happy young bride and groom made a beautiful and fascinating picture.

The wedding ceremony was performed by a cousin of the bride, Rev. Mr. Eldridge of San Francisco.

Miss Helen Chase has so much animation, and such genuine enthusiasm for her friends, that she made the most charming bride of the year.

It is a great misfortune for them, that so many of the brides of the year think they must adopt a formal heavy pose. In the bridal white, they look like graven images, and one feels they will be glad when they come down to earth.

This special bride was unaffectedly glad to see her friends, and answered their happy good wishes in a friendly fashion, altogether charming.

It is no wonder that everyone has always loved Helen Chase, now Mrs. Traylor Bell. And the groom looked handsome and happy, and bore his share of the honors of the evening with dignity and a great friendliness.

The gowns worn by the wedding party and many of the guests were handsome and elaborate.

The bride's gown was of messaline silk, a very handsome creation. It seemed to suit her exactly, and she looked beautiful and sweet in this wedding gown with a long veil of tulle fastened with orange blossoms, and carrying a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor wore a gown of palest green chiffon, and she carried a great armful of sweet peas.

The eight bridesmaids were in pale yellow chiffon, and each one carried a large bouquet of long stemmed Ascension lilies.

Mrs. Q. A. Chase wore a gown of light flowered brocade, in tones of pale gray, the corsage superbly trimmed in rare lace.

Mrs. Harmon Bell, the mother of the groom, wore an evening gown in tones of pale pink. It was admirably trimmed in lace, and her ornaments were diamonds.

Mrs. W. S. Goodfellow wore a gown of black with diamond ornaments.

Mrs. A. A. Moore was also in black, the gown beautifully trimmed with Chantilly lace.

Mrs. George Chase wore her wedding gown of white satin, which was also elaborately trimmed.

Mrs. Bernard Miller, one of the brides of last year, also wore her wedding gown of white satin.

Mrs. J. R. Burnham wore a gown of light flowered silk, the corsage trimmed in lace, and the gown set off with diamond ornaments.

Mrs. E. M. Herrick wore a costume in black and white tones.

Mrs. William R. Davis wore a gown of green flowered brocade, the corsage trimmed in Chantilly lace.

Miss Florence White was one of the most stunning girls at the wedding. She was gowned in light blue, with roses in her hair.

Mrs. Frank C. Havens wore a most attractive imported gown. She is always exquisitely gowned, and the pretty costume was set off by a dainty little pink roses worn in her hair.

Miss Ada Kenna and Mr. Orrick received many congratulations on their recently announced engagement, and so also did Mr. Hugh Goodfellow and Miss Jean Downey.

Beautiful Anita Oliver wore one of her bridesmaids' gowns, and Miss Carolyn Oliver was one of the most popular girls at the wedding. She is a very pretty girl, but she is a great deal more than that. She has a great good heart, full of good will for every one.

Mrs. Robert Knight wore a handsome gown of white with pink roses, and she is easily one of the most beautiful of the guests at any gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Clay came over from San Francisco to the wedding, and on all sides one heard compliments for both of them. Philip Clay is certainly very distinguished, carrying out the traditions of his family.

And Mrs. Philip Clay grows more beautiful every day—she was simply one of the most stunning guests at the wedding. And she is always most attractively gowned.

Both May Coogan and Lucretia Burnham made attractive bridesmaids, and both are very popular girls. Mrs. T. C. Coogan wore a very becoming gown of heavy flowered silk, and Mrs. H. C. Capwell was in white, with a bertha of rare lace.

Miss Mollie Conners wore a gown of dark red crepe de chine, the corsage trimmed in lace.

Miss Carolyn Palmanteer wore a very elaborate gown of white, the corsage beautifully trimmed in rare lace.

Among the guests of the evening were Judge Yule, Mrs. Redland, William Gorrill, Mr. and Mrs. George Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Breed, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Morrison, M. and Mrs. George Dornin, Miss Ruth Kales, Miss Ruth Houghton, Father Cranwell, of St. Mary's College, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crellin, Miss Mona Crellin, Rudolph Schilling, Whipple Hall, Dr. Percy Gaskill, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Burrell, Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, Miss Cordella Bishop, Doctor Harry Alderson, Mrs. W. E. Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Farr, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Cockcroft, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Heron, Mrs. George Percy, Miss Caroline Little, Mrs. Annie Austin, Miss Fox, Miss De Golia, Miss Florence Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens.

The ring in the bride's cake fell to Miss Elsie Kimble.

Doctor Percy Gaskill received the penny, which means, of course, that he will be wealthy in the future, and Doctor Cowden received the heart, which means that the little god Cupid is keeping an eye on him.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Libbie Wright.

No bride for many months has received such beautiful and such valuable presents as Miss Helen Chase, now Mrs. Traylor Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Bell own many acres at Piedmont, and they have given their son and his bride a beautiful site for their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell also gave the young people some superb dishes of hammered silver.

Mr. and Mrs. Q. A. Chase gave the bride and groom a magnificently equipped chest of silver.

A superb piano was the gift of the Kohler and Chase Company.

Mrs. Helen Rand, for whom Miss Helen Chase was named, gave her niece some rare and beautiful furniture, a table, a grandfather's clock, and a cabinet, all of teak wood.

Among the gifts were gorgeous specimens of cut glass, and many fine pieces of bric-a-brac, while the dear little bride has silver enough to last her the rest of her life. She deserves all the good gifts that fate may send her, and so does her husband. The young people are to have their own artistic home in the very near future at Piedmont, and their many friends know the cordial welcome that will await them there.

ALL SORTS OF SHOWERS.

There is a charming old-fashioned saying that "the bride must have her plenshing," and truly we believe in it these days, for there are all sorts of showers for the modern bride-elect.

There is the linen shower, when we give her all sorts of things, mostly hand made, and there is the "kitchen shower," when everyone gives something for the kitchen, and every one has a rare good time, when the gifts are given.

Miss Helen Dornin entertained at a fascinating kitchen shower for her cousin, Miss Helen Chase. It was a "surprise shower," and there were all sorts of fascinating things for the kitchen.

Each girl also brought a recipe for something she knew how to cook well, and all the recipes were pasted in a cook book, for the kitchen of the bride's future home. And if you had been on Broadway Friday morning you would have been astonished at some of the pictures you might have seen.

And it was all because Miss Ruth Houghton was giving a kitchen shower for Miss Bessie Haven.

All her young friends were down town buying something for the kitchen, and nobody could depend on these fascinating gifts reaching their destination unless she carried them home herself.

So one pretty girl looked like a charming milkmaid, carrying a big pail on her arm. Another was carrying home a most picturesque coal hod. Another had a most fascinating bundle, from which peeped out the most interesting nose of a tea kettle, and still another fair maiden was bearing tenderly home a steak broiler. Later, they made their appearance at Miss Ruth Houghton's, brave in wedding tulle, and bedecked with flags, or be-ribboned in festal array.

Some of the girls had clever little messages with their gifts.

A coal hod was beautifully adorned with tulle, and it carried its own dainty little message in verse:

"This coal hod big, is from Anita T. With good wishes for Hiram and fair Bessie;

May it grace the hearth of the bright fireside,

Of a dainty, loving, and charming bride;

May the fire in the grate shed cheerful light;

May the love in true hearts burn always bright!"

Miss Houghton's young girl guests greatly enjoyed the informal afternoon.

Miss Haven's friends who were invited included Miss Noelle De Golia, Miss Savilla Hayden, Miss Ruth Kales, Miss Rose Kales, Miss Carolyn Palmanteer, Miss Elsie Schilling, Miss Anita Thomson, Miss Gertrude Russell, Miss Kitty Kutz, Miss Katharine Brown, Miss Nell Geisler.

RUSSELLS TAKE A LARGE HOME.

The Russells have taken a large farm house near that of the Horace Howsers, at Rowdennan. Miss Gertrude Russell is going to Oregon, where she will be one of the guests at the large house party to be entertained by Miss Elsa Draper. Among the guests will also be Miss Elsie Sperry, the pretty and popular niece of Mrs. Will Crocker.

Miss Russell is a very charming girl, a very frank girl, but one can, but admire a girl in whom frankness is a distinguishing characteristic. You always know where to find people like that, and if they give you their friendship, you are sure of it.

Miss Russell is to entertain some of her girl friends this summer, and quite a merry colony of Oakland girls expect to enjoy Ben Lomond days this year.

MANY HAPPY ENTERTAINMENTS.

There are to be many entertainments for Miss Haven, but most of them will be August dates, when the girls will have returned from their summer outings.

SEND OUT CARDS FOR A TEA.

Mrs. Walter Hughes Henry has sent out cards for a tea next week, in honor of Miss Ethel Whitney.

The tea will be given at the Whitney home on Adeline street, and many invitations have been sent out, especially to old friends. Miss Ethel Whitney is going away again, to be with her aunt, Mrs. Condit Smith. All of the latter's daughters are married, and she has always been very fond of her niece, Miss Ethel Whitney, so the latter spends most of her time with her.

They have traveled extensively this last year. They spent many months abroad, and for some time were the guests of Mrs. McCreery. The latter has one of the lovely country homes for which Europe is famous, and this special one represents a chateau, comprising seventy rooms.

The tea given by Mrs. Henry, who was formerly Miss Mary Whitney, is in the nature of a farewell to her sister, as Miss Ethel Whitney will spend the summer in the East. The other guest of honor at the tea will be Miss Lillian Downey, of Berkeley. Miss Downey returned recently from an extended trip abroad, and the tea is to welcome her home. It follows the old admonition "to welcome the coming and speed the parting guest."

The tea promises to be one of the largest affairs of next week.

COMMENCEMENT AT PRINCETON.

Mr. and Mrs. Harden Crawford, with Miss Madeline Clay and Miss Margaret Sinclair, will spend commencement week at Princeton, of which university Mr. Crawford is a graduate.

Miss Madeline Clay, after a year at school, is coming home for the summer, greatly to the delight of her young friends.

Major Clay has again taken up his favorite pastime of automobiling, and he is growing well and strong in the out-door exercise.

PICNIC AT THE HAVENS HOME.

One of the social affairs of the week is the picnic, scheduled for Saturday, with Mrs. Frank C. Havens as the hostess of the hour.

Now a picnic is just what appeals to us these days. A game of cards would simply be a weariness not to be calmly borne. But the big out of door world holds charms for everyone, and I am quite sure that few regrets will find their way to Mrs. Havens.

She is to give the picnic at "Oak Knoll," which is directly across the way from the Requa home.

It is the site on which the Havens intend to erect their future home. Mrs. Havens has invited many old friends.

AN INFORMAL DANCE.

Now that the school term is drawing to a close the younger element is getting a large share of attention. This week a very delightful informal dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stillwell at their spacious home on Fruitvale avenue in honor of their daughter Miss Grace Stillwell. This young lady is one of the most beautiful and distinguished looking girls I know among the many that are budding into young womanhood. She has a beautiful coloring, a most graceful figure and is one of the leaders of an interesting set of young people drawn from Fruitvale and Oakland.

Mrs. Stillwell was Miss Blithen, daughter of one of San Francisco's oldest and most prominent families. Mr. Stillwell, though a young man still in the thirties, has established for himself an enviable position in the world of finance. He is the confidential agent and general business manager of a coterie of multi-millionaire business men of the East that were gathered together under the leadership of the late Peter L. Kimberly, who died this week in Chicago. The American Magnetics Company with several subsidiary corporations is one of the latest conceptions of Mr. Stillwell. This company is expending over two millions of dollars in California, the major portion of which is being spent in this county. It is developing an industry practically new to this country, its chief competitors being located in Italy and Greece. By the employment of the finest machinery, the latest methods and the most skillful American artisans a revelation may be expected in modern manufacturing.

The late Peter Kimberly was a most remarkable character. His life stands out a bright spot in the wilderness of high finance and proves the much mooted point that a man may acquire great wealth by absolutely honest methods. The fortune of some fifteen million dollars left by him was not the result of cheese paring economy and questionable practices. It was rather the residue of an immense sum made by developing the resources of this country. He spent his money like a Prince Prodigal and, like Marshall Field, made dozens of men immensely wealthy. In fact, it became proverbial that when a man was associated with him his fortune was assured. He was a wonderful judge of men and had a perfect genius for passing upon the merits of a business proposition. He looked at you, a genial smile spreading over his countenance, and read the very depths of your nature without betraying an indication of his judgment. His verbal promise, though given without any consideration, was kept to the letter even if he lost a fortune in doing so. He had no patience with the underhanded methods of financiers now being made public and scorned the advances of the Wall street cliques that constantly sought to enlist his ability, wealth and influence. He was too independent to become a mere link in a system that required one to blindly and unquestionably follow the dictates of any man. No man could say that he was ever wronged by Peter Kimberly. He was broad and highminded and very grateful. Simple and free from the affectation and snobishness that betray the small man who acquires wealth, he looked with patience upon the shortcomings of others and gathered about him a host of warm friends.

REDICK DUPEU MARRIED.

Redick Duperu is married at last. His wedding took place at a Stockton street restaurant in San Francisco on Wednesday afternoon. The affair was quite informal. Redick had been devoted at different times to three young ladies, all daughters of multi-millionaires, and society would not have been surprised at the announcement of his engagement to any of them. It was in fact, announced to one of them, but the announcement was promptly denied. Mrs. Duperu was a Miss Munro, a very charming young lady, for a number of years cashier of the Woman's Exchange.

LOOKING TO THE COUNTRY.

And so we are all turning our faces to the country, leaving for a while the daily duties. Well, in California, everybody can go. It is Lowell who says in his famous poem: "There is no price set on the lavish summer, And June may be had by the poorest comer."

THE MEDDLER.

WEDDING CARDS.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Winifred Osborne, daughter of Mrs. Anna McLaren Osborne, and Everett Brown, which takes place Wednesday evening, June 28, at the home of the bride's mother on Madison street.

AT LUNCHEON.

One of the enjoyable affairs of the week was the luncheon given Thursday by Miss Chrissie Taft for Mrs. Eugene Elbert Hewlett at the Claremont Country Club.

The table decorations were yellow, and covers were laid for Mrs. Hewlett, Mrs. Irving Lundborg, Mrs. Maxwell Taft, Mrs. E. Conde Jones, Miss Gertrude Allen, Miss Florence Hush, Miss Beatrice Vroom, Miss Edith Selby, Miss Elsie Marwedel, Miss Paline Fore, Miss Edith Gaskill, Miss Natalie Fore and the hostess.

INFORMAL DINNER.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Butters will entertain this evening at a informal dinner at the Claremont Country Club, with Miss Marie Butters as guest of honor.

The guests will include Miss Butters, Miss Marguerite Butters, Mrs. Kutz, Mrs. G. B. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Butters, and Count de la Rocca, Philip Paschal, Edward Davis, Ware Little and Mr. Smith.

WHIST CLUB.

The members of "Les Joyeux" Whist Club entertained recently at a theater party, followed by supper at the Hotel Metropole.

Those who participated in the pleasant affair included Miss M. Mubrenin, Miss Buckley, Miss A. Buckley, Miss A. Guichard, Miss Snaer, Miss E. Guichard, Miss Degan, Miss MacDonald, Miss Guichard, Miss E. Magann, W. Fitzgerald, H. Guichard, W. Brockering, J. McIntyre, L. Snaer, W. Hutchinson, S. Snaer, R. Guichard and Dr. Mubrenin.

CRACKNELL-BARNEY.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Mae Barney and John J. Cracknell took place Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barney, 1723 Filbert street. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Griffith Griffiths, of the Market Street Congregational Church.

The ceremony was performed under a bower of ferns and carnations. The bride gown in white crepe de chine, carried bride's roses, and was attended by Miss Alice Cracknell as bridesmaid.

Miss Cracknell was gowned in pearly crepe de chine and carried sweet peas and maidenhair fern. Edwin Swafer attended the groom.

After a brief honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Cracknell will make their home at 1111 Eighteenth street in this city.

est in railroad circles was that solemnized Wednesday when Miss Agnes Catherine Furlong became the bride of William J. Gillick, a popular young employee of the Southern Pacific Company.

The ceremony was a simple and quiet one, only a few friends being present. The Rev. Father Morrison, of the church, of the Immaculate Conception officiated.

Miss Elizabeth O'Brien attended the bride and the groom was attended by James Flynn as best man.

Both Mr. Gillick and his bride are well known and popular in Oakland, where they have lived most of their lives. Gillick stands high in the business of railroading and his wife is a young lady of many accomplishments. Both have many friends.

On the evening of June 21st, the Hargrave home on Sixtieth street, will be the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Miss Bessie Clare, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hargrave, will wed Mr. H. Lloyd Drury.

Miss Zylpha Bernal of Livermore will attend the bride, while little Miss Janice Kergan, a cousin of the bride, will act as flower girl.

After a brief sojourn in Northern California, the young couple will make an extended tour of the Eastern States.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

WILL CURE any case of KIDNEY or BLADDER DISEASE that is not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more. WAS GIVEN UP TO DIE.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended, and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured."

FASTER TRAIN SERVICE

NEW YORK CENTRAL LINES

MAKE FURTHER REDUCTION IN TIME.

Every day brings New York and Chicago closer by the efforts of the New York Central lines in reducing their time on fast limited trains.

A telegram received today from C. F. Daly, passenger traffic manager of the New York Central lines west of Buffalo, by their Pacific Coast representative, Carlton C. Crane, advises that at a conference of the New York Central lines held in New York today for the purpose of determining the best hours for leaving New York and Chicago with the twentieth century limited when the eighteen-hour schedule takes effect, which will be Sunday, June 18, it was decided to leave New York at 8:30 p. m. daily, arriving at Chicago the next morning at 8:30, leaving Chicago at 2:30 p. m. daily and arriving at New York at 9:30 the following morning.

It was found that an eighteen-hour schedule for the twentieth century limited between Chicago and New York can be made with the same ease and comfort as the present schedule of twenty hours. It was also agreed to reduce the running time of the famous Lake Shore train No. 25, known as the Lake Shore limited, one hour, leaving Chicago at 5:30 p. m. daily and arriving at New York at 8:30 p. m. the next afternoon, making a twenty-three-hour schedule.

The New York Central lines have well earned the reputation that they have for operating luxurious trains and very much reducing the running time without discomfort to their passengers.

At this point it should be accomplished were it not for the heavy rails, stone ballast, block signals and other up-to-date railway improvements as will be found on the New York Central lines, their depot being in the heart of Chicago and terminal at Grand Central station, Forty-second street, New York, the only the landing passengers in New York City without transfer.

A NEW CUSTOMS HOUSE

Long threatening comes at last. A new customs house is really in sight; that is, Uncle Sam is to make room for its officials in that part of the Appraisers' Building where the Post Office overflowed some years ago. Bids have already been received by Superintendent Roberts of the United States Treasury Department for making the necessary alterations on the third floor of the Appraisers' Building where the customs officials may be made comfortable for the next two or three years during the construction of the new customs house. The alterations will involve an expenditure of $11,000 or $12,000. The bids will have to be sent on to the Secretary of the Treasury, who will ward the contract. There will be time in plenty for the officials at Washington to look over the bids and make all arrangements for the change, because nothing can be done until the postoffice moves to its new quarters, which now the soothsayers say will be late in September. Everything will be in readiness when that time comes and then it will take from thirty to sixty days to make the alterations. That done, the task of wrecking the old postoffice will begin, and surely by the first of next year the million and a half customs house will be under way. For many years the customs house has been rather lost in the postoffice shuffle. It has been hard to tell where one department began and the other ended. When the customs house is an entity, it will be a dignified day for this important metropolis.—News Letter.

THE ARGONAUT.

Those who have not yet definitely decided where they will spend their summer outing should read the Argonaut for June 12. It contains some admirable hints and advice to prospective vacationists and a resume of the attractions of California's leading summer resorts. There are copious illustrations and a wealth of interesting summer reading.

"Foreigners in Egypt" Jerome Hart's article is an entertaining account of the people of different nationalities who dwell in Egypt. The attitude of Germans, British, French and Americans toward each other, and the attitude of the natives toward all of them, is described with fidelity and humor. "His Golden Wedding" is the title of the story, which is by John Fleming Wilson. Besides having a tender strain running through it, it is an extremely picturesque account of an amusing scene. "The Cheat," one of the most notable and puzzling pictures of the recent Royal Academy exhibit in London, is the subject of Cockaigne's letter. The picture is a reproduction, and shows a party of four at bridge whist. One of the women has cheated, and the identity of the cheat has aroused endless discussion. Geraldine Bonner's letter is devoted to tea drinking in New York. In her usual sprightly manner she describes the tea houses of that city and the people who visit them.

NEWS LETTER.

The San Francisco News Letter this week has an able editorial based upon the present discussion about the convention at Portland of women politicians. This article will be found of interest by Abe Rea.

An English girl continues to criticize the manners of San Franciscans. Eleanor F. Lewis, who is making quite a name as a short story writer, has a remarkably bright skit in this week's issue, entitled "Paranella." Takes for the Foolish. The Press Club's June Wedding Breakfast and the "Cardinals of Stanford" are other subjects which are ably handled by the News Letter's bright writers. The regular departments are as interesting as ever.

TOWN TALK.

As usual Town Talk has an exclusive bit of news to give its readers through the medium of the Saunterer's department this week. This morsel of gossip is about Miss Lurline Spreckels and the richest New York bachelor. Some interesting news about the Japo-Russo war is given, and also the fact that the new Cabinet Secretary, Bonaparte, and his personality, the exclusive Bilgumites and some new additions to the colony, the week's engagements; what is doing among the artists and the writers; Berkeley matters; gossip from Los Angeles, Honolulu and other places; the troubles of newspapers when they print the wrong pictures, etc. There's a delightful essay by Harry Corwell, and Theodore Bonnet has a trenchant article upon the apology of Dr. MacArthur for Rockefeller. "Mrs. Eslington" is reviewed in the literary columns and "Leah Kleschna" in the stage. The editorials, musical and auto departments are all entertaining.

poses to a young woman, he should be accepted on the spot. Lady Henrietta Addison is of quite another kind. They have known each other from childhood; and as a Duke, Killcrankie has been her unsuccessful suitor three times and in three different ways. He asks the lady to be his wife first for reasons of love, second because of their intellectual agreement, and, neither of these availing, he offers himself simply "as a good investment."

The play goes on and evolves many humorous situations. Mr. Drew's Oakland engagement at the Macdonough theater is for two nights only, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, June 20 and 21. The advance sale of seats is to open at the box office next Monday morning, more than one week in advance of the date.

THE BELL.

An exceedingly clever bill of vaudeville had the tendency of packing the popular Bell theater to the doors at every performance. The La Vails, two aerial artists, a lady and a gentleman, are without doubt the most interesting team that have ever appeared on a local stage. Their act is sensational and they do almost impossible feats. The comedy company of twenty-five people in their play, "Life on the Plains," and several other big feature acts, constitute an exceptionally clever bill.

For next week among the bookings can be mentioned Kardell & Zherdne, in their beautiful electrical dance. This act in itself would be considered by managers as a great feature act, and is alone worth the price of admission. Fields & Hansen, the greatest team of comedy musical artists in the business, coming with the highest credentials; Oliver Trio, three high class comedy wire walkers, entirely new to the Pacific Coast, as well as Weston & Whalen, comedy duo, introducing the well known sketch, "A Hot Old Time," will be on hand. Mr. Whalen, of this team, is a comedian who has been connected with some of the largest stock companies in the country. A new series of animated pictures and several other feature acts constitute the bill for next week. The bill is exceedingly strong and taken all together, every act could be considered a feature.

ALCAZAR.

"Mistakes Will Happen" is another play of wide renown, but never before given in stock, which the Alcazar offers next week. It was written by two clever actors, Charles Dickson and Grant Stewart, both familiar with the technique of the stage, and Dickson starred in it for two years. It did even more than "Innocence" to establish his reputation as an eccentric light comedian. "Mistakes Will Happen" is an adroitly devised comedy of confusion, based upon the favorite farcical theme of matrimonial complication. There is a debonair young actor, married to a dainty ingenue, but keeping the alliance secret for professional reasons. A middle-aged couple are involved in the entanglement, the wife being enamored of the comedian, while her husband seeks a flirtation with the fascinating young actress.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

The week beginning next Monday night at the Grand Opera House will be devoted to "The Gates of Bonifacio," a powerful and stirring drama, as in Piney Ridge, Jack Rose is a waif, who does not remember his parents, and is known to be the adopted son of a widow, who leaves him at her death valuable iron mines, which were prior to this considered worthless. Jack Rose was practically raised by an old copper-colored woman named Dagmar, who has a son who is white, and is known to all as a white man still he has the black vein of blood. He has been educated and occupies the position of cashier in Deering's Bank. He is also a suitor for Azalia's at General Deering's. Mark Briarson, the white negro accuses Rose of being a white nigger, and calls Dagmar to verify the fact by saying that she is his "Jack Rose's mother. This, of course, ends the reception, but Azalia still believes Jack white, and does not waver in her affection. Major Jarrett has told Jack Rose the condition of the bank; he hurries to New York, and sells the remainder of his mine for two hundred thousand dollars, and by depositing the same in Deering's bank it saves the bank from closing its doors.

THE NOVELTY.

There is only one comment that everybody makes on leaving the Novelty theater this week and that is "The show is too great for the money. How can they do it?" But the management of the Novelty theater, always feel that nothing is too good for the patrons, no matter how high-priced the acts are, and it certainly pleases the management to know that their patrons are satisfied.

which has met with great success in the British Empire, but has never been seen in this country. It will be presented by a strong company, headed by Maud Williamson and Alfred Woods, two eminent English stars, who will make their first appearance in this city on this occasion. Miss Williamson, who has been associated with the brightest lights of the London stage, is an emotional actress of rare ability, and Mr. Woods is considered one of the best leading men that the stage possesses. He has the advantage of a sympathetic and melodious voice, a magnetic personality and a handsome appearance. The company which supports them includes several people who are entirely new here, but who have won enviable reputations in the East.

AT YE LIBERTY.

Tonight, tomorrow matinee and tomorrow night, will positively be the last three performances of that great drama, "Mizpah," which has had such a phenomenal run at the Ye Liberty Playhouse, and across the bay, Landers Stevens, who has succeeded G. H. Gilmour in the leading role, as King Absuera, gives a very effective impersonation, it being the best thing he has done here. Adele Block, again plays the part of Esther, and is more finished in detail than before. Frank McVickers, who has been ill, resumed his old part as Mordecai, chief of the Jews. The other members of the all-star cast are excellent in their roles.

AT PINEY RIDGE.

Next week, commencing Monday evening, and running the entire week, with the usual matinees Saturday and Sunday, the management will offer for the first time in stock, David Higgin's rural drama, "At Piney Ridge," a beautiful mountain love story. "Frank Bacon" will have the leading role, as Jack Rose, and will be supported by Bishop's players, including Elmer Booth, Oral Humphreys, Robert Lawlor, Harry Mestayer, Morris Stewart, Lloyd Ingraham, Clifford Dempsey, Frances Slossch, Oza Waldrop, Elsie Esmond and Mina Gleason.

The story of Piney Ridge is one with a number of splendidly drawn characters and a plot that is consistent and intensely interesting, depicting the lives of how the whites and blacks have become mixed and the complications arising therefrom. In no other play is this subject dealt with, and treated with such a degree of realism hand, the general's daughter. He has also betrayed the confidence of Cindy Lane, a mountaineer girl, who follows him to the city. Her father, looking for her betrayer, also goes to the city, but her love for this man will not let her tell her story, and it is generally believed that Jack Rose has the drop of black blood. Jack Rose has sold a portion of his mine and deposited his money in Deering's bank, which is on the verge of closing its doors, owing to the thievery of Briarson, the cashier. He has learned from Azalia, the general's daughter, the condition of affairs at the bank, and if Rose draws his money from the bank it will close. But he has fallen in love with Azalia, and that prompts him to leave his money there for another year. At a reception given in honor of Mr. Rose,

Howard Thurston certainly seems to be the wonder that he is advertised and the act of nine young ladies, headed by Maude Rockwell, assisted by the Melotte Twins, was certainly all that can be expected. Miss Maude Rockwell also renders an illustrated show there will be a selected stock company of twelve artists, who will render the farce comedy of "Mister Dooley." This play has been a hilarious success wherever it has been given, in which some beautiful girls, elegant costumes and exquisite scenery will be seen, and all the latest

Next week the show will also be a feature one, headed by DeMora and Greeta, premier comedy acrobats. This is their first appearance on the Pacific Coast, having come direct from some of the largest circuits in the East. They certainly will be the talk of Oakland after they make their appearance. The balance of the bill will include Forrest and Henderson, refined singers and dancers; the Hesleys, comedy sketch artists; Valle, the musical wonder, and several other good numbers, besides some good moving pictures.

The management is beginning to feature strongly as a head-liner that will be just as good as Thurston, Henry Lee, a famous entertainer, who has appeared before all the crowned heads of every foreign country in the world. Mr. Lee stands alone in his particular act, and after seeing him once you cannot resist the temptation of wanting to see him again the second time. The management begs that the ladies and children will attend the matinees to avoid being crushed in the nightly crowds that are bound to patronize this theater during his engagement. The price of admission will always remain the same—ten cents to all parts of the house.

THE DEWEY.

The old favorite Dewey theater will re-open its doors on Monday evening next, June 12, with one of the best continuous shows ever seen in this city. The gentlemen who have leased this house are all well-known theatrical men, consisting of Messrs. Wise, Weston, Tiffany and Ackerman, of San Francisco. If the talent that will appear at the opening is any criterion of what the patrons will see in the future, then the success of this venture will certainly be a success. Miss Maude Rockwell, who has been a success in the initial performance will be inaugurated by Weston and Herbert's nonpareil aggregation of vaudeville artists—a company selected from the best that Europe and America can produce. In conjunction with the vaudeville show there will be a selected stock company of twelve artists, who will render the farce comedy of "Mister Dooley." This play has been a hilarious success wherever it has been given, in which some beautiful girls, elegant costumes and exquisite scenery will be seen, and all the latest music. There will also be the newest motion pictures, and, altogether, it will be a show that would be easily worth fifty cents, but the management has placed the admission at ten and twenty cents. There will be two performances every evening, beginning at 8 and 9:30 each night, with a matinee on Wednesday at 3 p. m., and two matinees on Saturday and Sunday, at 2 and 3:30 p. m.

AT IDORA PARK.

While the attractions at the big carnival which opens for the second week at Idora Park tomorrow are many and varied, there is one that easily outclasses all others.

She is a girl of ten—prize of face and figure—and her name is Coroma de Zamora. She is a bright and winsome child and is easily the star of all the children gymnasts in the country. She does a turn on the trapeze with her father and mother, who are also clever, but it is the pretty little girl who captures the crowd that visits the stadium. This little girl certainly has a brilliant future before her in the show world.

A sight worth seeing is the "Green's glass palace." On exhibition is a dress made entirely of glass. It is a marvelous creation and one over which the gentler sex delights.

There is not a single objectionable attraction on the grounds, and women and children can visit any with perfect propriety.

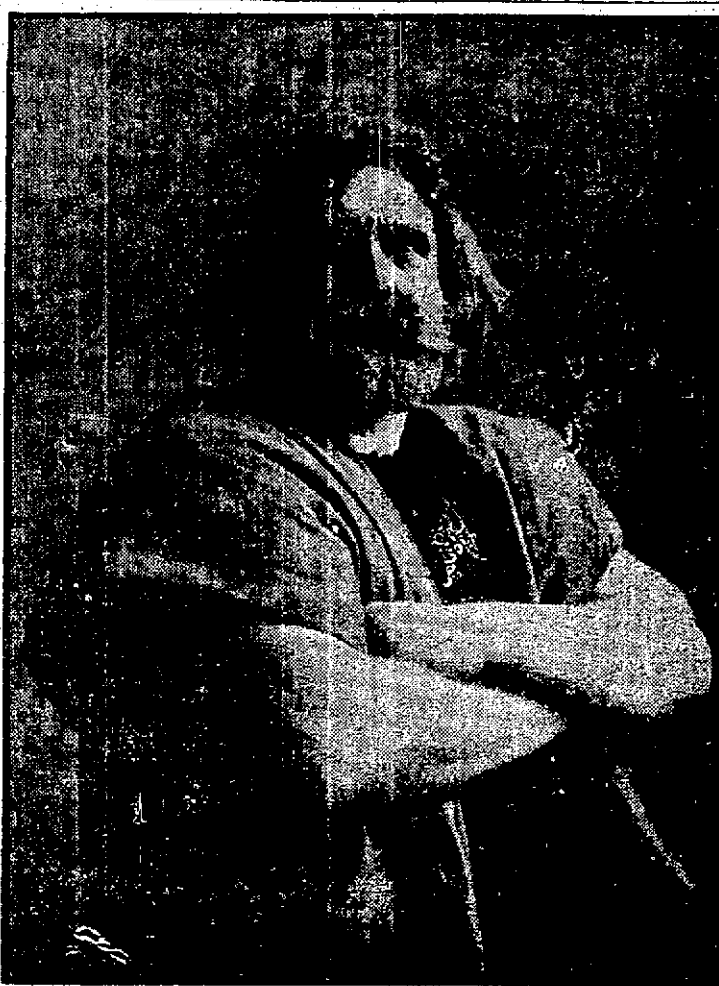

Diavlo, who climbs a perpendicular wall on a bicycle, creates a sensation by his daring.

Du Bell gives a wonderful free act on the high wire, riding a bicycle on the wire with the same ease an ordinary rider uses on the street.

One of the shows that stands out in the memory after being once seen is Rita, Queen of the Air, who vanishes from the full view of the audience. This is in the theater building, and, together with the illustrated songs by Norman Stanley, and moving pictures, makes the performance very enjoyable. There will be a matinee performance every afternoon.

PREPARE FOR FOURTH IN ALAMEDA

Enthusiastic Meeting Held Last Night When Committees Reported Good Progress.

ALAMEDA, June 10.—The executive committee, publicity, finance, aquatic and concessions committees for the Fourth of July celebration held an enthusiastic meeting last night in the Council chambers in the City Hall. President C. R. Smith in the chair. Chairman T. Carpenter of the finance committee stated that the funds were coming in steadily, and that in the neighborhood of $1,400 or $1,500 had already been received. He then said that with Senator E. K. Taylor and J. B. Lanktree, he had made a foray into Oakland yesterday and secured subscriptions from many of the county officials. With other donations to come, about $60 would be realized from that source, while merchants and others were to be interviewed next week.

"It is an excellent scheme, we find," said Judge Cone, "to go after the money in groups of three or four committees, so that one man gets out of breath the others can keep on talking."

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland was present and said the celebration was the show of the county and its citizens filled with patriotic spirit. He heartily indorsed the plans for the celebration and night carnival ley Jackson, of Honolulu, formerly of this city, and Miss Genoveva G. Barre, of the Honolulu society at large, were united in marriage at noon today in the First Presbyterian Church, only relatives and intimate friends being present. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. Frank S. Brush, the pastor.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson, and is connected with the insurance business. He arrived here on the steamship China on Monday to claim his bride. Miss Barret is the only daughter of Bret Barrett, of 929 Taylor street. She is a graduate of the Alameda High School, and is a favorite among a wide circle of friends here. After a honeymoon trip to Maui and Mrs. Jackson are to return to Honolulu, where they will make their home.

WILLIAM SWAYNE DEAD.

ALAMEDA, June 10.—William T. Swayne died yesterday at his residence, 1200 Taylor street. He had ceased had been in poor health for some weeks preceding his death. He leaves a wife and three children, Miss Helen K. Swayne, Mrs. Louis James Swayne and a son, William T. Swayne, now in the East, but will start for Alameda immediately in response to a telegram telling of the death of his Chairman Smith said the celebration was for all Alameda, and all should lend a hand to make it a big success. With the plans for the automobile parade, the illuminated yacht and other floats to be featured, the elaborate pyrotechnic display and other features, the celebration would prove one of the most attractive affairs of the kind ever attempted in this part of California. The fireworks would occupy from an hour and a half to two hours, and many novel designs would be shown, including fire waterfalls on the further side of the tidal waters.

Senator Taylor said the opening of the Park street and the Fruitvale avenue bridges on the night of the water carnival was assured. Owners of fifteen launches and 500 volunteers are using their boats to float the yachts and decorated floats, but the parade will not start until Tuesday.

Deceased had lived in Alameda for the past fourteen years. For many years he was a federal official, being employed in one of the government bonded warehouses. He retired from active service two years ago.

PERSONAL NOTES.

ALAMEDA. Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Schwerin are leave on Monday for Santa Rosa, where Mr. Schwerin, who is recovering after a severe illness, will recuperate in Burke's O'Brien.

Frank O'Brien, of 2150 San Jose avenue, is spending the past next week for Boulder Creek, where he is to spend a month's vacation.

Miss Irene Rose, of 2005 San Jose avenue, is spending a short vacation at Woodland. She is expected to return to Alameda during the early part of forty launches would be required. Some plans were decided upon as to advertising.

The question of a band came up again, but it was stated that the contract had been let to the Third Artillery band, and could not now be cancelled. The matter was, however, decided, on motion, to consider no outside shows or amusement proposition, in connection with the celebration.

TO MISS FABENS TO WHOM.

ALAMEDA, June 10—Where Miss Eva Fabens, well known in society circles here, resigned her position as assistant secretary of the Board of Education, is a matter which has interested that a pretty little secret induced her to leave the service of the board, where she was very highly respected. It is said that some of the society circles are interested to learn that on next Thursday, at a simple home wedding she is to become the bride of Charles Nelson, also of the Island City, where he is popularly known in club circles.

Miss Fabens is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fabens.

Grand Lapham, the well known horseman, is ill at his home on Pearl street and Encinal avenue, having been confined to his residence under the care of a physician since last week.

Reuben Salisbury has gone to Reno, Nevada, where he will spend the school vacation with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. 327 Broadway, returned today after a three weeks' sojourn at Monterey.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Combs have gone to San Francisco for a month.

Mrs. Anna Humphrey, of 1518 Broadway, is seriously ill at the Sanatorium.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Combs is visiting the Lewis and Clark Exposition at Portland, where he intends to spend some time. His family is sojourning at Mill Valley.

Joseph Schumann has gone to Nome, Alaska, where he will open a drug business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schumann, of 1519 Everett street, will go to Petaluma shortly on a brief visit.

Leslie Baker, Russel Baker and

Mr. Nelson has resided in Alameda for many years, and he and the bride-to-be were classmates at the Alameda High School. He is prominent in railroad circles, being in the traffic management of the Illinois Central Railroad. The nuptials which are to be solemnized at the Fabens' family residence on Santa Clara avenue, will be witnessed by the immediate relatives of the contracting couple.

MARRIED YESTERDAY.
MONDAY, June 12—Augustus Han-ing come down from Stirling, Butte county, where he is employed on the News, as well as in the office of the Diamond Match Company.

E Baker president of the Bank of Alameda, has established a camp in Moraga Valley, where he is entertaining a number of the members of the Boys' Brigade company of the First Presbyterian church. He is expected to return on Monday.

PASTOR RESIGNS | WOMEN ALERT

Rev. E. E. Clark Leaves Church at Elmhurst. White Ribboners to Fight Proposed Saloons.

ELMHURST, June 10.—Rev. E. E. Clark, the pastor of the Presbyterian Church here, sent in his resignation at a business meeting of the members last Wednesday evening. No reason for the action was given. The resignation was accepted. It will take effect September 1st.

It is understood by some here that the desire of Mr. Clark to leave has been caused by the recent scandal in the church ranks, and investigation with its attendant gossip. A number

West Berkeley and one in South Berkeley. They will be organized in the near future. Mrs. Kerlinger, a member of the Congregational Church in Lorin, was present, and after explaining the situation in the church and seeing that the watchfulness needed to prevent a saloon from being established at Lorin, asked for the assistance of the union. Her plea had much to do in leading the ladies to of the members sympathized with W. A. McDermitt, who brought the charges of misconduct against Elder Rankin and who was ousted from the church. These viewed with disapproval the pastor's companionship of Rankin and Miss Rines, whom he considered to be the cause of the trouble.

erén innocent. In the place of Elder McDermitt who was deposed from that position by a commission of the Alameda Church Presbytery, the church elected Henry Nelson, an old and faithful member of the body.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Frank Storer of this place is to be one of the orators at the annual memorial service of the Woodmen at Mountain View Cemetery in Oakland tomorrow afternoon. A large number of the Woodmen of Elmhurst will attend the exercises. Judge W. H. Waste will also give an address.

A woman who was plaintiff in an action in a London court the other day said she earned her living by lending out silk hairpins and feathers to working girls for holiday.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 20, 1905.
During an illness with which I have suffered from heart and stomach trouble for nearly eight years I have been treated by prominent physicians in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle.
They failed to cure or even diagnose my case. My condition gradually became worse, until I was in a low stage of debility. I then consulted
Dr. Wong Him, of 657 Geary street.
He diagnosed my case, describing every symptom of my affliction. I took his medicine, when I immediately began to improve. After continuing his treatment for five months I became a well woman. MRS. D. L. YOUNG,

GOSSIP FROM THE SAN FRANCISCO WEEKLIES

DISCOVERED BY SOCIETY

Everybody is amused at the way society has suddenly "discovered" Miss Leslie Green! Of course, the Green family have always been known, and pretty, dainty little Miss Leslie has for several years been a recognized belle in the college town, but outside of Berkeley's social circles the fair maid was little known. Now that she is soon to become a multimillionaire's society is, metaphorically speaking, at her feet. People who never even bowed to her before are now rushing to her side and call her "Leslie dear." Certain distant and influential relatives who had scarcely recognized her existence, are now dilating with hypocritical zest on the gay social career they were planning for the "dear girl" when Howard snatched her from their loving attentions. One neighbor whose house is not far distant from the Green homestead, where he had never called in spite of having always known the Green girls, has become Miss Green's admirer—in view of her association with the Huntingtons, at whose shrine he has long worshipped. The pretty future bride, however, is quite unspoiled by the excessive flattery. She will be married in August, and is now busy arranging her trousseau when the social lions give her a minute's respite.—Wasp

THE VALUE OF THE VOICE

Caruso may give his drawings away, but he does not part with his vocal notes for nothing. He demanded and received $2,500 for three songs at a charity concert given by the Countess Annie Leary at the Waldorf-Astoria, in New York, last week. Madame Nordica, who was more dramatic than the tenor, said that she would have sung for nothing, but that business relations with Herr Conrad prevented. As it was, she considerably gave four solos at the bargain-counter rate of $1,700. After the singers had been paid and other expenses, amounting to $5,000, there remained $3,000 for charity.—Wasp

AMUSING OAKLAND'S SMART SET

Oakland society is expecting much in the way of delightfully original entertainments this coming season, when Miss Marie and Miss Marguerite Butters shall have made their formal debut in society. I do not know any family that is more lavish in the way of dinners, luncheons, dances and outings than the Butters, and as they have unlimited means they are able to do much for the amusement of the smart set. Miss Marie Butters was graduated from the fashionable Scoville School, New York, a few days ago. Mrs. Victor Metcalf attended the exercises as Miss Butters' guest, and afterward took the young girl with her to Washington, and will bring her to Oakland at the end of the month. Contrary to her usual custom, Mrs. Metcalf is to spend the summer in California, as she has to be here to entertain Miss Roosevelt and the Taft party on their flying visit while en route to the Philippines.—Wasp

WEDDING PRESENTS

Everybody expected that Miss California Cluff and Mr. John Breuner would receive a number of valuable presents, but the magnificence of the gifts overshadowed those that have been bestowed upon any recent bride. No less than three silver tea services and two splendid chests of small silver a Chickering grand piano, etc., glass, bronzes, marble statues, etc., are among the "remembrances." The walls of the Cluff rooms were trellised with deep pink climbing roses, well suited in their soft beauty to the fair, girlish bride. The wedding gown was exquisite. Point applique lace, mounted on liberty chiffon, the train long and sweeping and the corsage finished with a point lace bertha. A double knot of large diamonds, with perfect stones pendant at each end, caught the lace. It was the only ornament worn, and was the groom's gift. A white tulle veil, with a spray of orange blossoms resting on the dark hair, and a large bouquet of lilies of the valley completed the toilette. By the way, Mr. Breuner and his bride fooled even the family when it came to leaving for the honeymoon. It was supposed that they were to go to the Hotel St. Francis, and leave from there the next afternoon for Monterey. But Mr. Breuner's chauffeur stood with the big automobile at the side of the street near the hotel, and when near the St. Francis the chauffeur was ordered to change his route. The couple took their seats in the automobile and made the dash to San Jose, where they put up at the Vendome. The next morning the tour was continued, Monterey being the second stopping place. They will not have recourse to a public conveyance during the whole trip unless, indeed, something happens to the "go-wagon."—Wasp

DISHONEST MERCHANTS

Great surprise has been occasioned by the remarkable statements attributed to Professor Starr Jordan, who is attending the Congress of Religions this week at Chicago. Among other remarks that Prof. Jordan was reported as saying is that "he never heard of only one dishonest Japanese while in Japan." The talented Professor added, if we may believe the telegraph dispatches, that the untrustworthy Jap "was one whose morals had been contaminated by residence abroad." Sweeping statements of this kind, and couched in such unscholarly language, are so much at variance with Professor Jordan's usual methods of expression as to be incredible. It is no doubt true, as Professor Jordan declared in another part of his lecture, that there has been absolutely no stealing by officials who have the handling of Japanese war funds. This is a fact generally admitted by those who know the Japanese best. But there are plenty of dishonest people in Japan as well as in other places.

The May number of the Contemporary Review, a high-class English publication, deals very fully with "the commercial morality of the Japanese," and gives the mercantile community of the Mikado's realm a most unsavory reputation. A leading English review is the last place in the world to look for a malicious and unjust attack on Japan. It is safe to assume that Joseph H. Longford, the author of the criticism in the Contemporary Review, is animated by no sinister motive, and desires to state in unequivocal language the plain facts as he discovered them during his residence in Japan.

Mr. Longford gives unstinted praise to the governing classes of the Japanese—the Samurai "Corruption in any form," this British author says, "has been long unknown in every Government department, and no instance is heard, even in war time, of fraudulent contractors profiting by the urgent necessities of the moment." Very different, however, is the certificate of bad character which Mr. Longford gives the Japanese merchants, "who as a class have, according to the universal verdict of those who deal with them, the unsavory reputation of absolute unreliability in the fulfillment of any obligation." They have failed, he says, "to acquire in their commercial transactions even the most elementary principles of common honesty." How does this accord with the statement attributed to Professor Jordan?

Formerly the merchant was classed as the lowest in the social scale of Japan. The Samurai, or soldier class, come first, and included the hereditary aristocracy. These were taught the code of ethical morals called the Bushido, which inculcates honor, courage, self-sacrifice, and contempt of gain for its own sake. After this soldier class come the farmer and the artisan, with whom honesty was a pre-eminent characteristic and gain a secondary consideration. Lowest of all stood the traders, who more than made up for the deficiencies of their higher-class brethren in financial rascality.

Caste has been changed greatly in Japan in late years, and the traders are now the legal equals of the Samurai; but, to use the words of Mr. Longford, "neither wealth, self-interest nor patriotism has even modified their inherited and deeply ingrained incapacity for grasping the primary tenets of commercial integrity."—Wasp.

A MERRY HOUSE PARTY

No people that I know enjoy themselves more than the young men and women of Oakland. One of the latest plans for a three weeks' jollification is a house party on the ranch of Mr. George Jensen, near Alameda. The party will leave this week, and all sorts of good times are assured, including May rides, butter making, a la Marie Antoinette and her maids, a La Petit Trianon, fishing and "spooping" under the moon's pale rays. It is good to be young and to have one's lot cast in California. Among those who are to be of the party are Mr. and Mrs. Roland Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Dan F. Belled, Miss Carolyn Oliver, Miss Anita Oliver, Dr. Rodney Jones, Mr. Ralph Jones and the host.—Wasp.

CHERRY PIGNICS!

It is a poor season in Oakland when they cannot give a "cherry picnic." Poor as the crop has been this summer, there have been two or three excursions from the city out to Haywards and San Leandro. One of the prettiest of these outings was given by Miss Harriet Stone at the picturesque place near Elmhurst. The thirty girls took their seats upon a platform built into the spreading branches of a cherry tree. There they picked the fruit and feasted to their hearts' content. Miss Stone was assisted as hostess by Miss Havemeyer of San Francisco.—Wasp.

PROSPECTIVE MOTHERS-IN-LAW

Prospective Mothers-in-Law. It is not often that the prospective mothers-in-law of a young couple are as much in love with their future son-in-law and daughter-in-law as are Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Haven, mothers of Mr. Hiram Tubbs Hall and Miss Besie Haven, whose betrothal was recently announced. Miss Haven has named her wedding attendants. The maid of honor will be her sister, Miss Laura Haven, a high school girl, and the bridesmaids are to be Miss Fannie Plaw, the bride's cousin; Miss Susie Hall, a sister of the groom; Miss Katharine Brown, and Miss Evelyn Hussey, the bride's most intimate friends. Ground has been broken for the picturesque house in East Oakland, where the couple are to live, and everything seems to be going smoothly for these favored young people.—Wasp.

AN IMPORTED WIFE

Oakland is on tiptoe of expectation as to the bride of Mr. Samuel Hubbard Jr., whose marriage to Miss Josephine Wolsburger of Austria was solemnized recently in London, England. In a way Oakland resents the action of her young men in going far afield for wives. There are pretty and sweet girls right at home, Mr. Hubbard, as you know full well. Another son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hubbard, Will Hubbard, married Miss Peck of Milwaukee, and they are entertaining Mrs. Hubbard's mother, Mrs. Peck, at their Vernon Heights home this summer. Charles, the third son, is still unmarried. The family have been abroad for a year, but they are expected to return this fall.—Wasp.

AN INTERRUPTED WEDDING

It was certainly annoying to the man who came clear from Goldfields to Oakland to meet and marry his affianced bride, who had journeyed from Chicago, to be informed that a former divorcee stood in the way of his happiness. In Nevada they do not bother their heads over the time that has elapsed between a divorce and wedding, but California has ways of her own. Finally the two decided that Nevada ways must be respected in the Golden State, and therefore Mr. Simon T. Pearson of Goldfields got his license and married Miss Ellen C. Gage of Chicago a few days ago, but he came within an ace of having to put it off for four months.—Wasp.

A WONDERFUL SYSTEM

There is nothing more remarkable in the history of this war than the perfection of the system of censorship by which the Japs kept their movements secret. It reached as high a state of perfection as the sanitary system, which was the greatest surprise that the medical world ever received. When the history of the war is written by an expert he will give to this censorship the importance that it deserves. It saved more lives than did the doctors with their superb safeguards against disease, and yet they reversed the rule of war by rendering the microbe less devastating than the bullet. If the secrecy of the movements of the army and navy had not been as strict as it was, battles that were won would in all probability have been lost; at any rate, the Russians would have been forewarned and prepared. In the matter of the censorship the Japs exhibited great genius, for it was not to be expected that they would anticipate the correspondents, never having had much experience with the Anglo-Saxon methods of journalism. And their task was a particularly difficult one, for they were eager to refrain from doing anything that would occasion adverse sentiment in America or in England. To offend the correspondents would be to invite abuse in the press. Hence their exercise of Oriental tact by which the correspondents were coddled and cozened. It was by reason of the secrecy of his movements that Togo was able to give the Baltic fleet his quietus. For weeks before Rojstvensky entered the straits of Korea the world was in ignorance of the whereabouts of Togo. It was thought that he was evading the issue. In the London Saturday Review of May twentieth it was stated that according to the Times Rojstvensky would soon find himself in Vladivostok; that Admiral Birloff was leaving St. Petersburg to take command in Vladivostok and relieve Rojstvensky when he arrived. The Review added: "Yet another week has passed without a single word of Admiral Togo or his fleet; our admiration for the efficiency of the organization which makes this possible grows continually."—Town Talk.

IT JAMS THEM

Usually when our millionaires buy large estates and attempt to invest them with the atmosphere of one of the old houses of England, their schemes excite the risibles of the sophisticated beholder. The Parrotts are an exception, I am told, and incidentally I am advised that they do not hedge themselves in from the thorough through any exaggerated sense of importance, or because of a desire to affect an air of exclusiveness. It is their innate refinement, I am told, that impels them to shun the giddy set with its numerous hoidens and bounders. Emilie and Abbie Parrott, the elder daughters of the Jack Parrotts, are among the most conventional of our society girls. Their conduct on all occasions is the pink of perfection, and it is said their good example has had a salutary effect on the members of the girls of their set. They seldom remain long in the giddy whirl of Del Monte, preferring as they do the quiet and simplicity of their San Mateo home.—Town Talk.

EGAN'S TIP

Even after the battle the news of the event was suppressed until Togo was ready to let it out. And by the way the first hint of what had taken place came from Meritt Egan, formerly of Oakland, and now Associated Press Correspondent in Tokio. He was inhibited from giving the big story to the world but he fooled the Japs at their own game, for in sending his brief message of the appearance of the Baltic fleet in the Korean straits, he wrote of "the historic events of today." The newspapers were quite sure that he meant to give a hint as to what had occurred, but only one, the New York Press, had the courage of its convictions, and it boldly published the announcement that there had been a battle. The Call received its news from the Press and scooped its San Francisco contemporaries.—Town Talk.

SOCIETY IS RESTING

Blingum is dull, deadly dull, just now, for the Blingumites are resting. They are all getting ready for the Del Monte season, which opens in July. There will be few of the Blingum set not represented at Del Monte next month, and many society people who have not as yet left town are to make the pilgrimage to Monterey during the next fortnight. Mrs. Fred Kohl, the indefatigable, is to be there and as usual will promote the festivities. All the other society people, I hear, have lost their enthusiasm for giving entertainments for they have seen so much of one another of late that they have grown tired of the faces of their friends. Mrs. Kohl was a godsend to them, for a pretty woman with millions at her command, who is youthfully eager to keep things moving, is a decidedly interesting study and a never-failing source of kindly gossip. The Hopkins sisters, who used to be depended upon to make things hum socially, are now regarded as hopelessly domestic. Mrs. Kohl, by the way, is beginning to find her place in the set of which Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Spreckels are prominent members. She and Virginia Joliffe are, seen together frequently. Miss Joliffe is the picture of an artistic summer girl, and looks her best in shirt waist suits, which become her slender proportions more than do decollete bodices. Miss Joliffe visits at Burlingame constantly, and is scarcely ever out of her summer togs. The Rudolph Spreckels, I am told, are to rebuild their summer home which was destroyed by fire, and it is to be modeled after the Petit Trianon. Therefore we may soon expect to see society sporting itself in dainty shepherd and dairy maid costumes.—Town Talk.

AT LINDEN TOWERS

The Jimmy Floods are soon going to have a country home of magnificent proportions and rare beauty, unsurpassed in the grandeur of its landscape in all America. They already have a beautiful home near Alma in the Santa Cruz mountains, where the Herbert Laws also have their country residence, but now they have an army of men at work improving the old Flood place, Linden Towers, at Menlo Park. This spacious domain was the property of Miss Jenny Flood, who, it will be remembered, deeded it to the State University. The regents had no use for it and it promised to develop into a white elephant when Miss Flood asked that it be reconveyed to her, offering one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars for it. The offer was accepted, and shortly after recovering possession of the property Miss Flood presented it to her brother, who is now making of it one of the finest country places in all the West. It will soon be opened with James L. Flood as the grand seigneur and then there will probably be some entertaining on a royal scale.—Town Talk.

THEY WILL NOT HASTEN

Oakland commuters are laughing at the great corporation upon whom they are dependent for transportation from bedroom to counting room and back again. It is a genial, satirical laugh, that mingles melodiously with the noisy movement of trains at the end of the mole and the smell of petroleum from the locomotives. It is a laugh induced by the cry of conductors: "Hurry up if you want to catch the boat," a warning incited by the necessity of the twenty minutes ferry service. During nearly half a century it has been the privilege of the Oakland commuter to walk leisurely from his train to the ferry boat waiting in the slip. Frequently he had to stand around in the corral like a dumb driven Texas steer while the freight handlers shoved merchandise aboard. During all these years the great corporation has encouraged the lazy movement of the Oakland commuter. Now it is trying to hasten him. Vain effort! Some of these commuters have traveled on this laggard ferry from the cradle to the verge of the grave, and always at the same dignified pace. It is too late to teach these dogs new tricks. The conductors may shout: "Hurry! Hurry!" as the daughters of the horse leech cried "Give! Give!" but the Oakland commuter will not budge a hair's breadth faster than has been his habit for these many years. Boats may come and trains may go, but the commuter goes on in the same old way. The worm has turned, but he has turned deliberately and not hurriedly. He has writhed too long under the iron heel of the oppressor to wriggle more lively; he can only laugh and pursue the even tenor of his stately stride.—Town Talk.

WHEN ALICE ARRIVES

What will the climbers and the clubbush contingent do when Alice Roosevelt arrives? There will not be enough of her to go round and the time of her stay "in our midst" is almost dreadfully brief—too brief for all that we would do in the way of "functions" and "entertainment." There is sure to be disappointment, and carping envy, and heartache, and much laceration of feminine pride, and some humiliation of feminine egotism. And think of the ordeal to which "our honored guest" will be subjected—the unwelcome people that will be thrust upon her; the sycophancy which she must endure with a smile; the horrid boredom of the "reception" that must be "arranged" for the mob of climbers on the lower rungs of the social ladder—a democratic necessity that provokes a sneer on the aristocratic lips of the elect who have risen so far above the original cheese and mackerel that even the odor of those huckstering aids to fortune no longer offend their nostrils to remind them of ignoble days and opera nights, when their eyes turned toward with no thought that ever they would sit there in unaccustomed splendor. It is one of the penalties that Miss Roosevelt must pay for happening to be the daughter of a President of the United States. How often she must thank fortune that she is not a royal princess to be compelled to endure this snobbery for a lifetime!—Town Talk.

IT TAKES US TIRED

We find the following in the "Automobile Notes" of an esteemed contemporary.

"Mr. Blank, of the Automobile Club of California, last Sunday made a trip of over one hundred miles in his new steen H. P. Model Q Blank Automobile."

What of it? Great snakes! What of it? Jumping Jehosophat! WHAT OF IT?

It is these solemn narratives of doing nothing in particular and doing it very well that inspire such deep, dark distrust of the average auto in the bosom of the average man. There are probably half a hundred hundred-pound boys around Milpitas who have ridden thirty-pound bicycles a hundred miles around San Francisco bay and never shed a feather; there are probably half a thousand San Francisco boys who have ridden their "centuries" the other way round and never batted an eyelash. Why, then, so much solemn rejoicing over a five-thousand-dollar two-ton machine, with two or three men to feed it and wipe its nose, going one-eighth the distance per day of a narrow-gauge switch-back locomotive, with one connecting rod out of commission and bronchial incrustations on its boiler flues? Why shouldn't such a machine make over a hundred miles in a day? If it couldn't, it ought to be run into a wheat field and hitched onto a threshing machine.

Such talk makes us tired. "A hundred miles in a day." WHAT OF IT?—Argonaut.

LAWYERS AND THEIR FEES

It takes two lawyers to make a firm, according to the old story of Dodson & Fogg. Sometimes it takes three to get as much out of a client that the law allows, the theory being that the more spoons are in the soup the less likely it is to get cold. San Francisco courts are not exempt from the operations of various gentlemen whose knowledge of the statutes is equalled by their ability to magnify the services of their intellects into figures of many places. Superior Judge Coffey has only lately remarked with juristic irony upon an instance of shrewdness worthy of the ancient worthies who never saw a client depart without making an entry on the credit side of the day book. In the matter of the exceptions taken by Andrew J. Clunie to the report of E. A. Bridgeford and Burrell G. White, co-executors with him of the estate of Thomas J. Clunie, Judge Coffey disallowed many items, among them two payments to two attorneys of $8,000 and $2,000 respectively. The court held that neither of these should be paid, and quoted the following as an instance of "simple service magnified." On December 2, 1904, procured, prepared, and presented for signature the decree of due notice to creditors, upon producing and submitting to the court the affidavit of publication theretofore filed therein. The labor entailed in this, Judge Coffey remarked, was simply the filling of a printed blank with the name of the case, and presenting it to the judge for signature.

Judge Coffey is to be commended for his vigilance in watching the administration of estates and the cutting down of fees such as these.—Argonaut.

A Creeping Death. Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend died of blood poisoning. He had been swelled up like blood poisoning. Buckle's Artery Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. Sold at O. Woods' drug stores, Seventh and Mission streets, San Francisco.
